our Campus*

*Christian association is an impression of life at Fletcher.
A campus of three divisions, yet each together makes the whole.
The grade school child, the academy student, and the student nurse help to make Fletcher what it is.*

Attainment of lofty goals

requires hours of tedious study.

Through prayer strength is found to face each new day.

The student labors hard and learns that through work one becomes more fully educated.

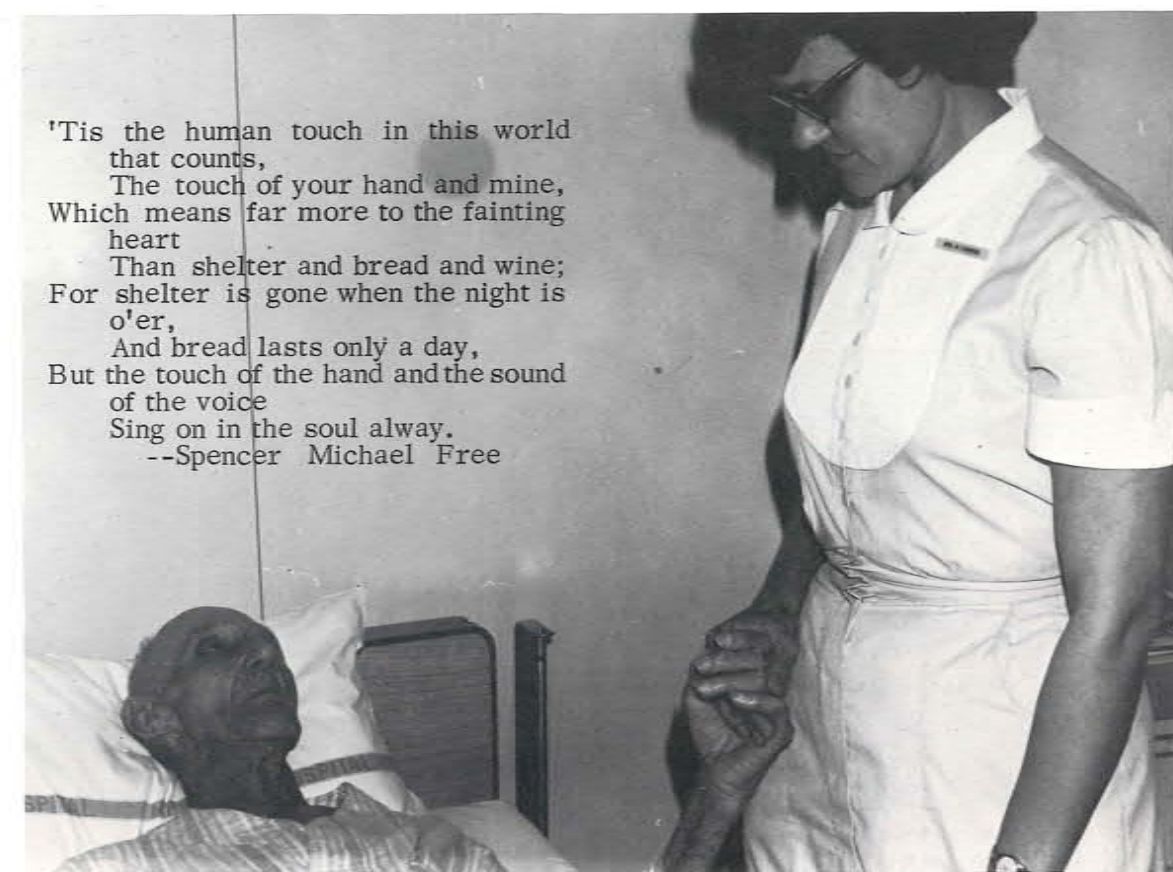

The call to work beckons
the student nurse.
Through the Doors of Service
the true meaning of helping others is discovered.

A goal reached at last--but only a stepping stone to greater achievements of the future.

Many a nurse has lost her heart
to a loveable new born babe.

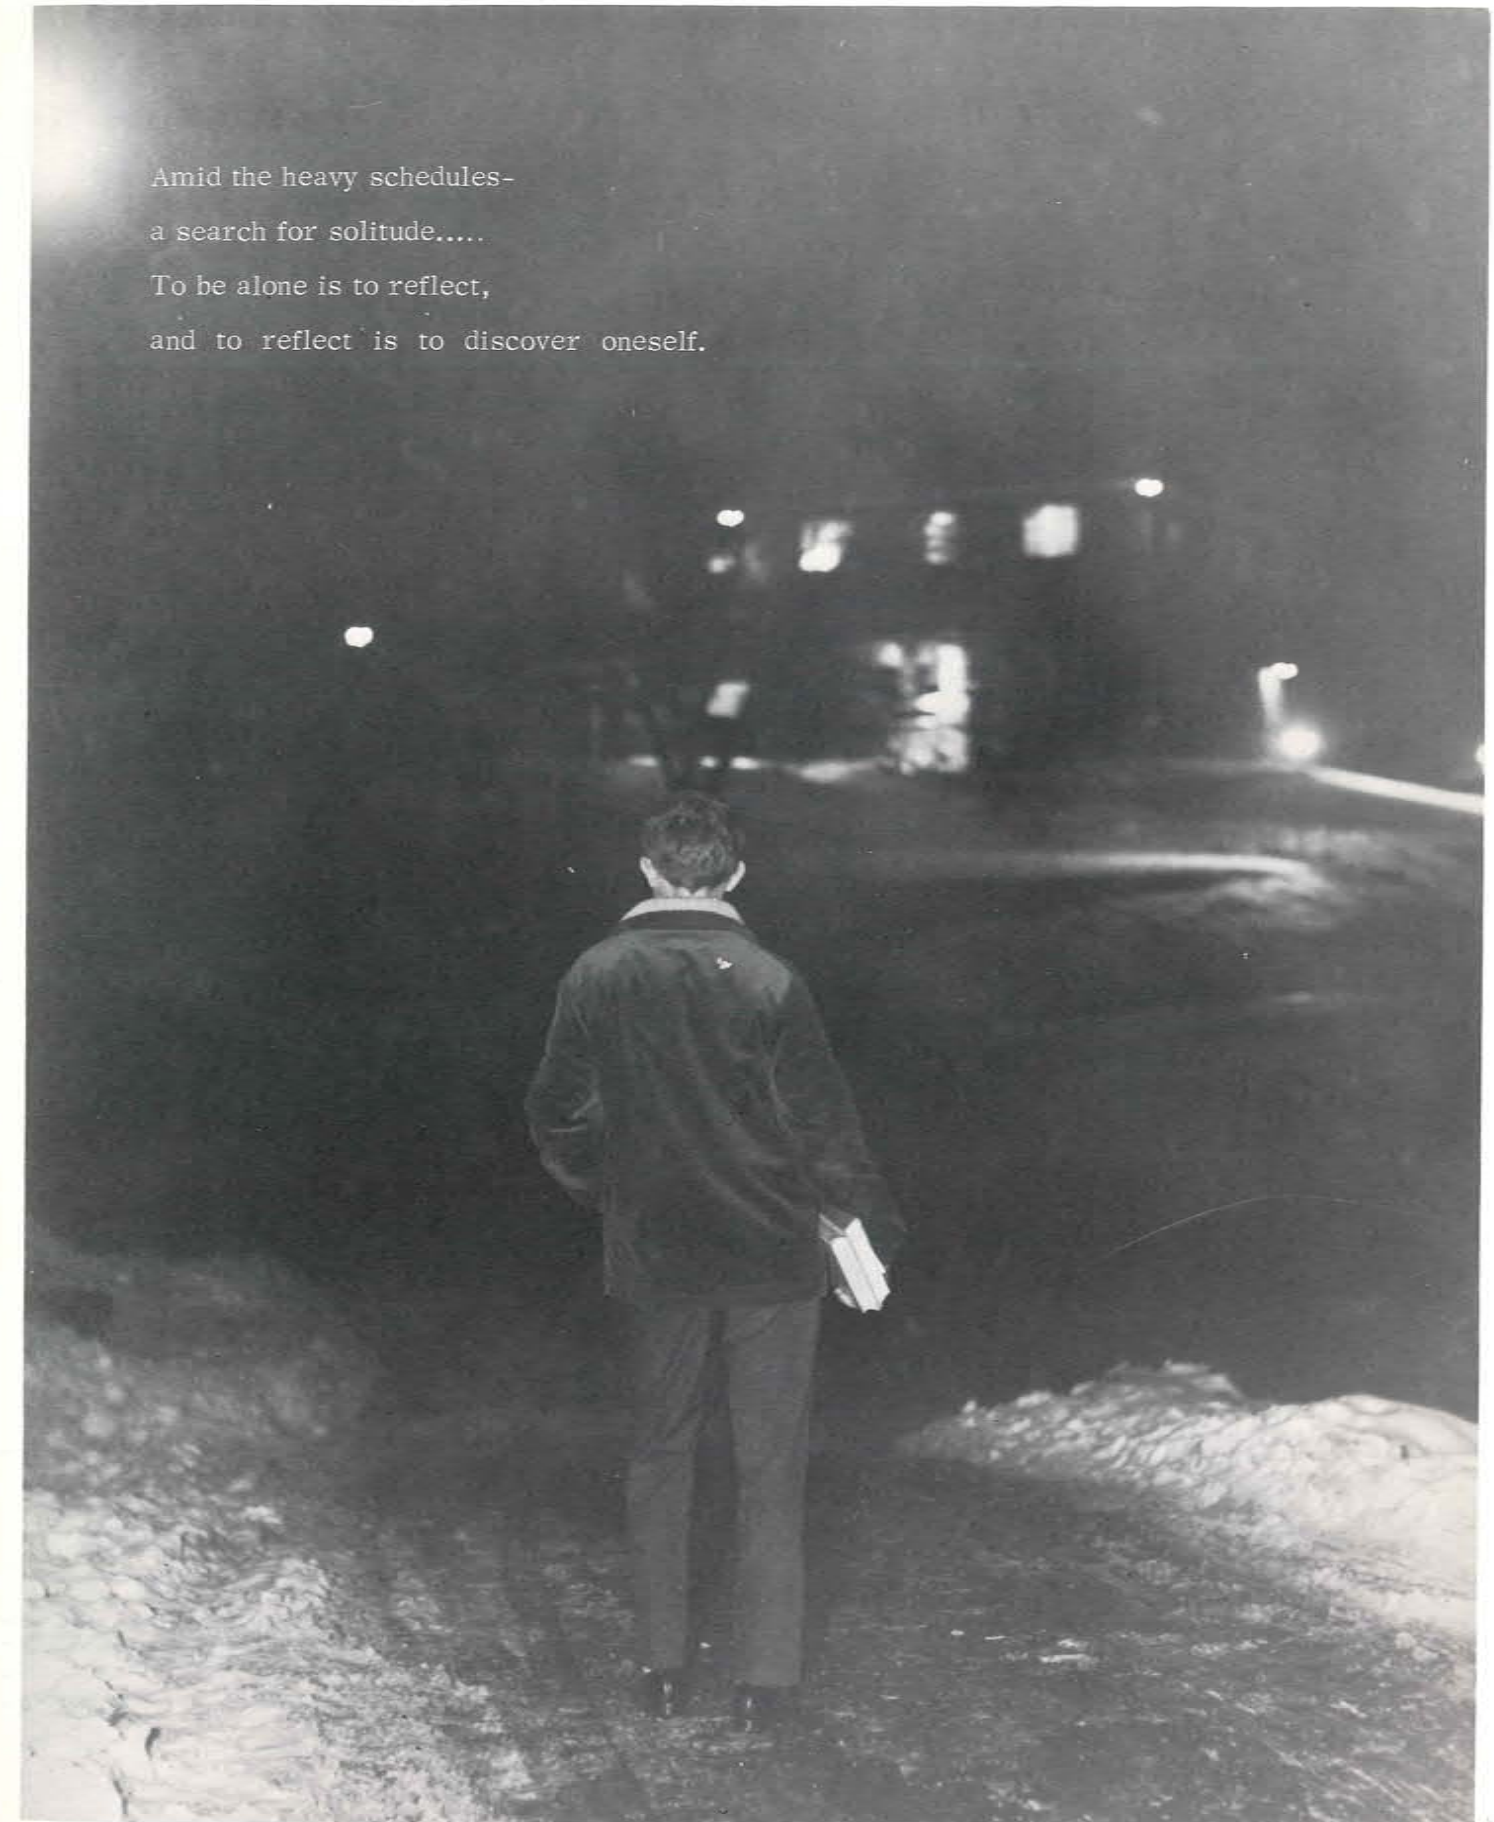

'Tis the human touch in this world
that counts,
The touch of your hand and mine,
Which means far more to the fainting
heart
Than shelter and bread and wine;
For shelter is gone when the night is o'er,
And bread lasts only a day,
But the touch of the hand and the sound of the voice
Sing on in the soul alway.
--Spencer Michael Free

There was a time to play.
To enjoy the fellowship of comrades,
and learn the deeper meaning of sportsmanship.

The days end. A quiet campus.
The sound of the night nurse's footsteps echoes in the hospital
corridors.

Amid the heavy schedules-
a search for solitude....
To be alone is to reflect,
and to reflect is to discover oneself.

Because you have taught us with patience and understanding; you have observed our progress with pride, and suffered with us through our trials and hardships; you have by your quiet and dedicated Christian life, as supervisor and teacher, influenced many to climb, rather than descend the stairway of life.

Because of the faith and interest, untiring love and devotion that you have shown for the student nurses, we, as a small token of our love and appreciation, wish to dedicate our portion of the 1966 Whispering Hills to you, Mrs. Dell Nestell.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Student Nurse of the Year

It is with pleasure we introduce to you the student nurse of the year, Mrs. Mary DeVasher, known to most of us as Ikey. During her years of training she has been an outstanding student; Freshman year she was in charge of patients worship and assistant editor of the annual, Junior year she was the president of Aprona Oxfora, she is now president of the Senior class and

Senior class representative to the Student Council. Ikey has the duties of a home yet she has a high scholastic standing as a student nurse. A Christian character and a pleasing personality are reflected to those she meets in her daily walk of life. The underclassmen have chosen Ikey as student nurse of the year because she has given to them the initiative to attain the highest goals in life.

Dedication

Dedication

It is to you, whose nerves of steel have stayed you through moments of fear and anxiety. Your bravery has inspired us to loftier ambitions as each year you brave the attempts of novice vehicular manipulators. Who can tell what thoughts traverse your mind as you sit stolid in your seat, a monument to patience.

It is to you, our friend, Mr. Vernon A. Lewis, that we dedicate this Annual.

Principal's Message

Dear Students and Friends:

It is doubtful that there was ever a time when more interest and attention was given to sports than today. This has been promoted by more leisure, more money, and the commonly accepted idea that sports teach sportsmanship. Many thinking people, however, bemoan the evidence of so little sportsmanship carried over from the athletic field into real life. Thus, the fair play of the game has degenerated into something quite different in business, social affairs and political life. This may be partially due to the fact that in so many places sports have become big business, and that more emphasis is placed on the game than on the ideals which it is supposed to teach.

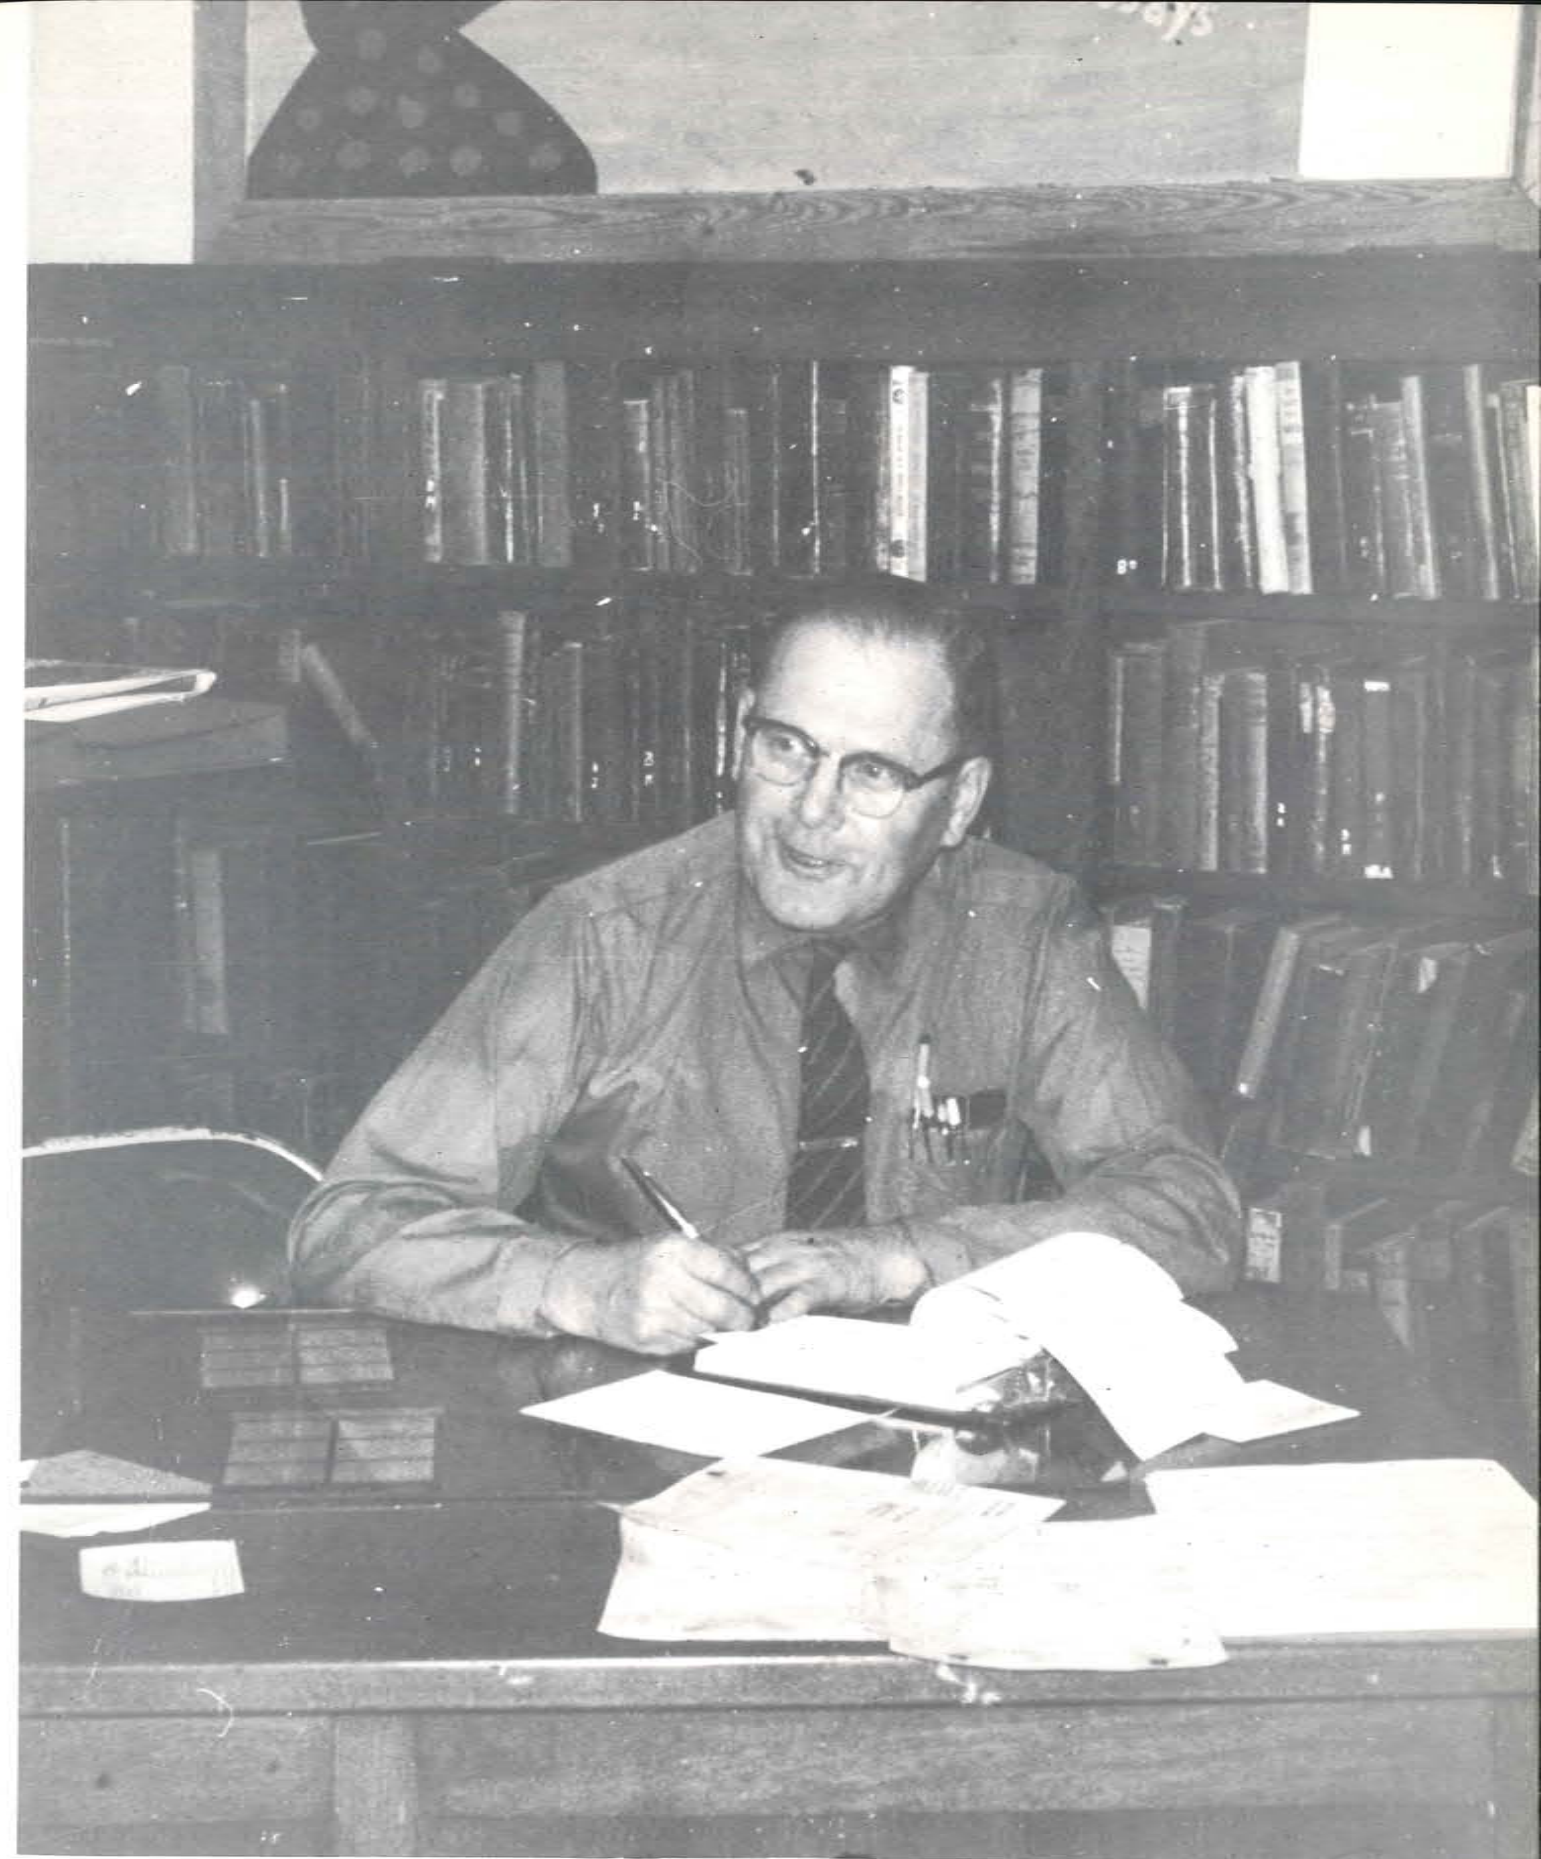

Today, as never before, sportsmanship is needed in the greatest of all games--life itself. Here, on these fields, millions of earth's olympians compete while celestial watchers look on to the final outcome. That old Gospel Warrior, Paul, said "Run so that you may win the prize." Later, he was to say of his own life, "I have fought a good fight. Now the crown awaits me." Students and friends, as a closing general assignment for the year, I would invite you to give a little serious thought to the Sportsman's Prayer:

Dear God, help me to be a good sport and a good loser in this game of life. I don't ask to be the pitcher or for any prominent place in the line-up; play me anywhere You need me. I only ask that You give me the patience, courage, and stamina to give You the best I've got in every game. If all the hard drives seem to come my way, Lord, I thank You for the compliment. Help me always to remember that You won't ever let anything come my way that I cannot handle, and help me to take the bad bounces as part of the game. Help me to understand that the game of life is full of hard knocks, bad hops, and foul tips, and make me thankful for them. Help me to get so that the harder they come, the better I will like it, and grant that I shall never sidestep one that is too hot to handle, nor alibi, whimper, or complain that I have had a raw deal or that the game was a frame-up. Use me wherever You will to play the game in such a way that You will have no regrets for giving me the chance; and finally, when we reach that last inning and the evening shadows are gathering, grant that I may win Thy decision and be counted safe at Home. Amen.

May the prize be yours when the race is won.

Very sincerely yours,

CROSSING THE BAR

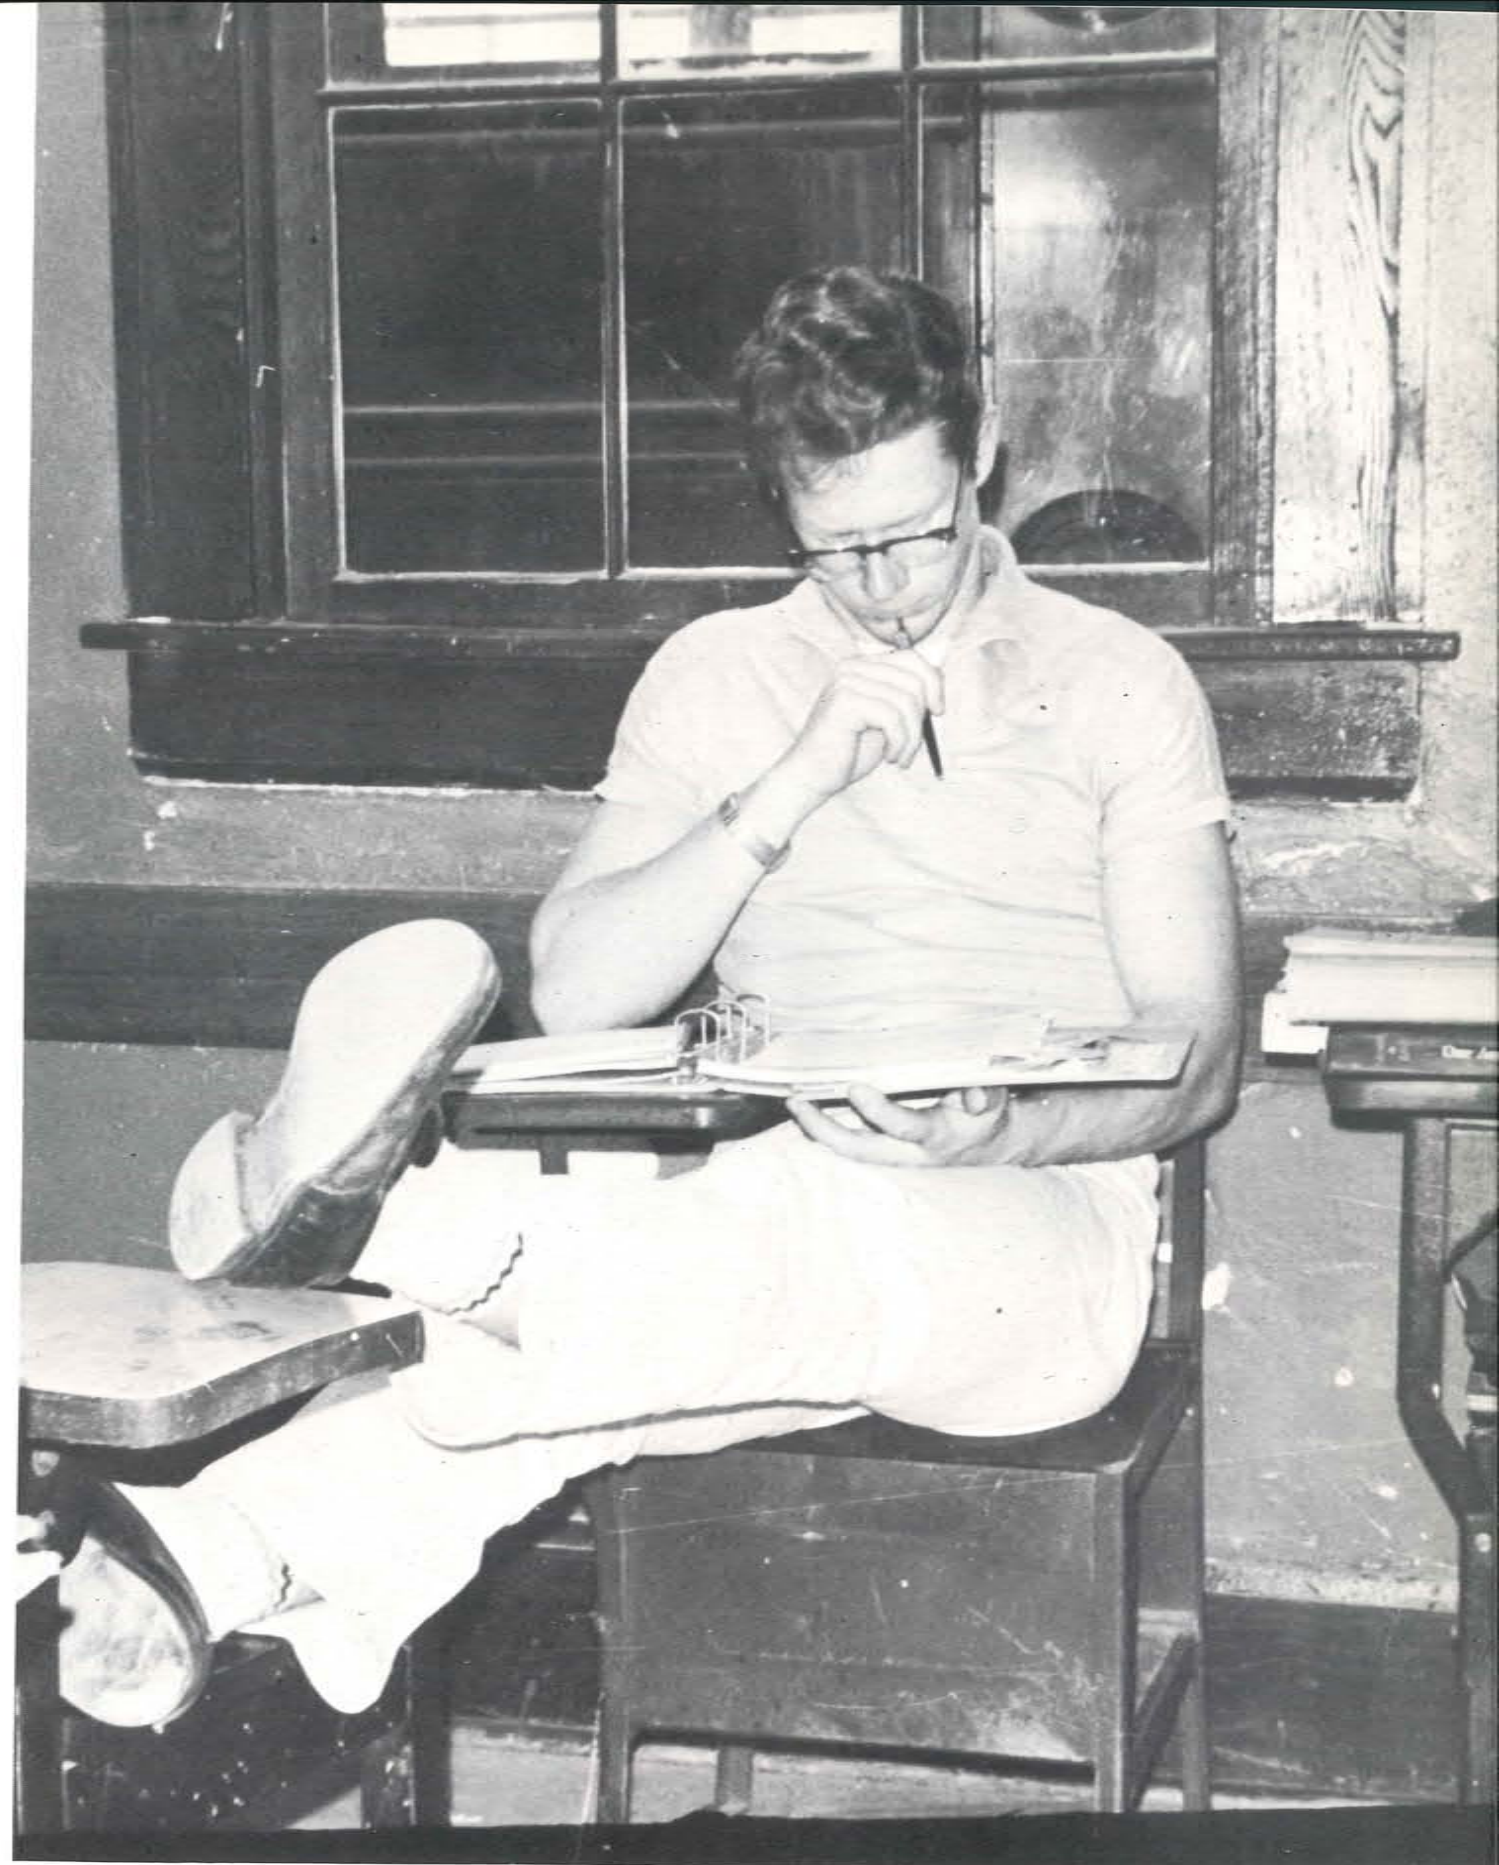

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.
