Foreword

Just as the raising of our flag over Iwo Jima was a momentous occasion, so, in a smaller way, is our presentation to you of the Whispering Hills of 1974. Within its pages you will find a pictorial record of another year at Fletcher.

May each page awaken happy memories.

Prinicipal's Message

Dear Students:

You can live only one day at a time. You have only one day to do your best. There is no guarantee that you will be given tomorrow or the next day to do those things you neglected to do today. What are you doing with this precious, fleeting time? The wisest man that ever lived gives us this advice: "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might." Eccl. 9:10.

Remember, "It is the little things of life that develop the spirit and determine the character. Those who neglect the little things will not be prepared to endure severe tests when they are brought to bear upon them . . . . You are either building crookedly or with the exactness and correctness that will make a beautiful temple for God. Therefore, in looking for great things to do, neglect not the little opportunities that come to you day by day. He who neglects the little things and yet flatters himself that he is ready to do wonderful things for the Master, is in danger of failing altogether. Life is made up, not of great sacrifices and of wonderful achievements, but of little things." S. T. Feb. 27, 1901.

So let us "watch and work and pray as though this were the last day that would be granted." MS. 31, 1911. What we do today may determine where we will spend eternity.

In Memoriam Steve Zollinger

Steve Zollinger, a 1970 graduate of Fletcher was voted the senior most likely to succeed, and also had the distinction of being the valedictorian of his class. Shortly after his graduation it became necessary to remove both of his kidneys because of disease. A transplant operation was performed in which Steve's mother donated one of her kidneys. The Student Association, as well as the community, took on the project of raising funds for this expensive operation.

It was a high day at Fletcher when the entire student body was able to go to the airport to meet Steve and his mother on their return from Duke University Medical Center.

Steve had a very positive attitude about life and was willing to leave things in God's hands. He was certainly looking forward with hope to the time when sickness and pain would be forever obliterated. He died on Sabbath, July 14, 1973.

Message

Dear Students:

Why are you here? Here at Fletcher? Here on Earth? Which do I mean? While they may seem to be very different questions, a closer examination of all aspects of the question reveal a very strong relationship between the two.

It is only as we come to see this life as a preparation for the next, that we can really answer these questions. We are here to get "an education that is as high as the heaven and as broad as the universe; an education that cannot be completed in this life, but will be continued in the life to come; an education that secures to the successful student his passport from the preparatory school to the higher grade, the school above." Education p. 19.

It is my prayer that each one of you may be successful students, in this fullest sense of the word.

Pastor's Message

Life can be characterized to the forward-looking Christian young person by these words of Scripture: "Press toward the mark." Life is full of marks and goals. It generally takes plenty of pressing and pushing and effort to attain these marks or goals.

There's always a way to rise, my lad,
Always a way to advance;
But the road that leads to the Mt. Success
Does not pass by the way of chance.

It goes through the stations of work and strife,
Through the valley of Persevere,
And that man that succeeds while others fail
Must be willing to pay most dear.

Reaching goals, pressing toward marks, is a must to everyone who would grow and develop. All heaven is concerned with our goals, and has offered us unlimited help—providing the goal is good. Education is one of the best goals—that really is never fully reached here on this earth. We climb only to higher landings as we go through life.

"The highest culture of mind, if sanctified through the love and fear of God, receives His (Christ's) fullest approval . . . The Lord desires us to obtain all the education possible, with the object in view of imparting knowledge to others." MYP 171-173

Education is a goal, and also a key to reach other goals. So I challenge you to press on toward this goal and toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God.

Sincerely your pastor,

R. G. Beck

Directors Message

Today many of us are having to take a new look at our values. With many things we have long taken for granted as being essential to our life-style now unavailable, or in short supply, we are either finding new resources within ourselves to meet the crisis, or are joining the crowd of complainers who refuse to accept the fact that they can't have everything they want. Jesus said "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." (Luke 12:15). The truly abundant life is one in which Christ is the center. A life so filled will have inexhaustible resources on which to draw. The genuine Christian is like a conduit through which the blessings of heaven are continually flowing to those about them. The contrast between the nurse whose life is completely dedicated to Christ to be used in service for mankind, and the nurse whose work is just a job is immediately apparent.

It is my prayer that every Fletcher nurse will be a Christ filled nurse, freely giving of that which has been received.

Josephine Clayburn, R.N.
Director, School of Nursing

Dedication

If it is true that the mind and mores of a school are formed by its leaders, then Mrs. Fern Anderson has certainly fulfilled her part.

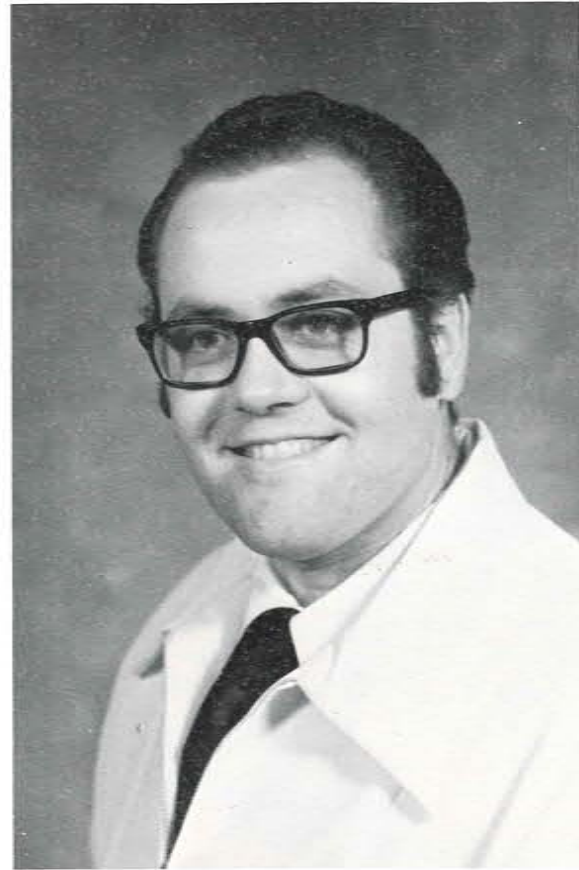

With a firm Christian foundation and gentle voice you have listened to our problems and fears, helping us find constructive and workable answers. In our fast, hurried lives it's still good to have someone to go the extra mile for us.

You've shown us that a true professional Christian nurse can not only instruct her students during clinical, but can also interact with many personalities and individuals and still be a peacemaker.

For these attributes, Mrs. Anderson, we, the student nurses, wish to thank you by dedicating our portion of this annual to you.

Student Nurse Of The Year

In recognition of your ability as a leader, your interest in the lives of others, your devotion to the Lord and your dedication to nursing, the underclassmen of the Student Association have chosen you, ROGER PHILBROOK, as Student Nurse of 1974.

We feel that it is through a deep spiritual relationship that you've developed such grace in your relationships with your patients, as well as with members of the medical staff.

With each of us you share these good qualities with a Christian attitude and a smile.

It is the hope of the annual staff, that the nursing section of the 1974 "Whispering Hills" will be a reflection of each student, and in years to come, bring back memories of the many Christian friendships and experiences.

Our new booklet may turn you off.

It tells how you can save some electricity. And a little bit of money.

By turning off appliances when they're not in use, for example.

The booklet is interesting and colorful. And free. Ask your Duke Power office for a copy. Or write to Public Relations Dept., Box
2178, Charlotte, N.C. 28201.

CINDY'S MUSIC HOUSE

YOU ARE WELCOME, DOCTOR!

The Fletcher Hospital and Medical Center has been fortunate to have had two new physicians to join the Medical Clinic recently. One is gynecologist John Nerness, M.D. and the other is pediatrician Gary Peterson, M.D. Above (LEFT) is Dr. and Mrs. Nerness and (RIGHT) Dr. and Mrs. Peterson. In the center is medical chief-of-staff Ronald Krum, M.D. in whose home the dinner was held.

Now we don't promise you a dinner per se but we shall warmly welcome three additional doctors on our staff. We presently need specialists in the following: E.N.T., ophthalmology and psychiatry.

On our campus are a nursing school which offers an R.N. degree, an accredited senior academy and one of the south's finest elementary schools. Our 100-bed hospital is modern and well-equipped and the doctor's offices are new and well appointed. We are located in a beautiful mountain setting. If interested, please write or call.
