
NEW HORIZONS

This yearbook is dedicated to MRS. PETTIT

Mrs. Pettit's hard work she puts into the music program is greatly appreciated by students. Despite the many hours of work she does to improve the music on our campus, her Christ-like attitude and encouraging smile is always there to greet students. Her passion for music is shown during performances, as well as in each and every practice. She intentionally makes time to personally connect with students in and out of practice which helps the dynamic of choir, 11th hour, and the school in general. Her love for Jesus shines through to students each and every day and continually reminds students who they're singing for. Thank you for all that you've done for our campus!

A JOURNEY TO NEW HORIZONS

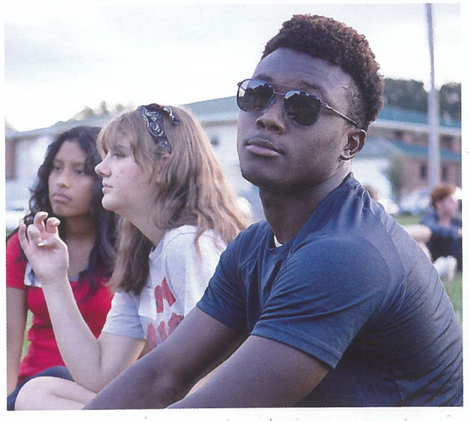

"Ew, germs!"
-Benji Edimidiong,
Gr 12

HANDSHAKE

PLEASED TO MEET YOU

As summer break slowly comes to an end, so does your immune system's health. To start the year off, not only do you get to meet new classmates, but you also get to share the germs they brought with them from wherever they came from, through the shake of their hand. Although, not to fear, Mrs. Rahm is here! Hand sanitizer in hand, and a welcoming smile to all, the start of new friendships and reconnecting of old, combined with students' eagerness to learn, will overcome the back-to-school illnesses! ...Or at least until students get back from the first school trip.

"The handshake was great way to get to know other students. The activities we did that day were very enjoyable. I would love to do this next year to get to know the freshman next year."

- Jessica Decker, Gr 9

Sabbath in the Mountains is all about growing closer to God, expanding friendships, and sometimes getting trapped in a human knot with people you just met.

SABBATH IN THE MOUNTAINS

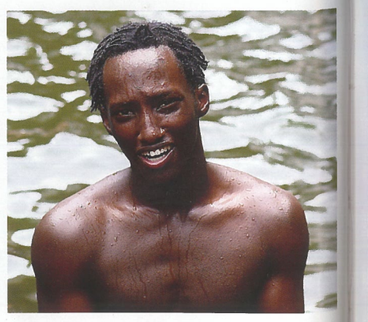

"Sabbath in the mountains was fun, but some of the skits were kinda whack!"
-Mitchell Nudd Gr. 10

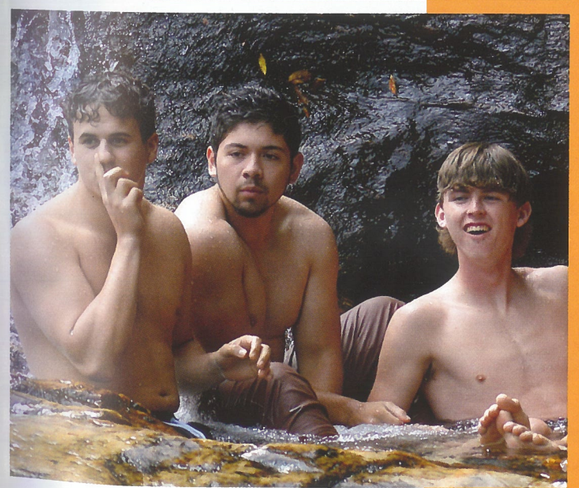

"I had a great time but going to the waterfall afterward was the best. (Especially seeing all the stunts that people did off the rock)."
-Benjamin Owens, Gr 10

"Sabbath in the mountains is always a great start to the school year and to great friendships!"
- Dailen Haney, Gr 12

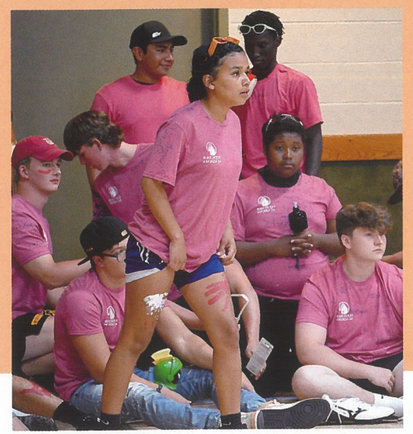

CLASS SCRAMBLE

NEW CLASSES...SAME COMPETITION

Seniors led the night winning being the only class with some sort of a raincoat. When you look around, everyone is poised next to their items ready to throw them at the runner. After countless activities of spinning basketballs, throwing paper planes, pausing Gabb stopwatches, and pushing lead out of pencils, the seniors ended the night with a well deserved victory.

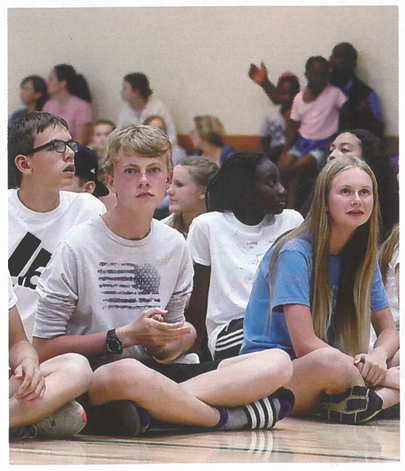

You know what...I tried okay? It's just hard when the bottle you're trying to flip is really on the sophomore's team.
-Abbi Sutton, Gr 12

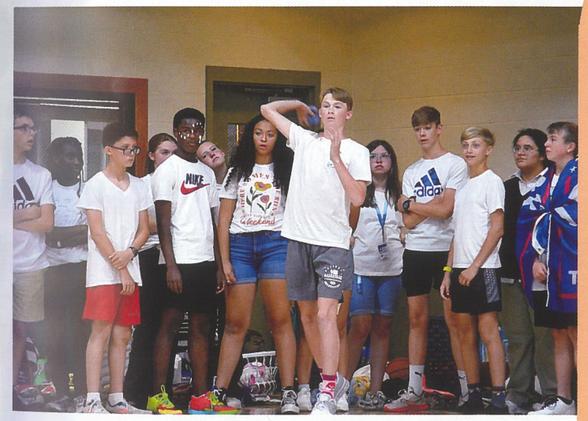

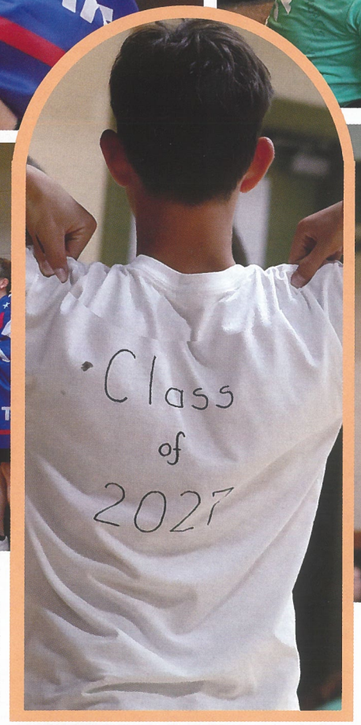

Freshmen got wrecked.
-Austin Burgin Gr 9

"For our first time, we did pretty terrible, but it's okay since it was our first time. They'll be annihilated next year."
-Anthony Pettit, Gr 9

It's the moment we've all been waiting for: Class Parties! It's a chance to catch up with your buds, and of course, steal a glance at your school crush...just kidding! It's actually a pretty important get-together because, let's face it, we haven't seen our classmates in years...actually, it's been only a summer...

GIRLS'S CLUB CAMP OUT

NEW FRIENDS, LASTING BONDS

Girls club camp out consisted of gooey s'mores around the fire, challenges of who can stand up and surf while tubing, hair washing in the lake, and lots of hair braiding. The weekend was pretty wild, and was a guarantee of a nice long nap on the way back to campus.

"The water was cool and refreshing! It was a great time!" -Isla Abbott, Gr 9

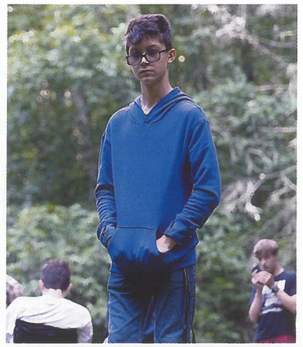

"Saturday night went crazy!" - Brielle Roy, Gr 9

"I love it that I get to spend 4 years of my life with my brothers." -Ashton Scoggins, Gr 9

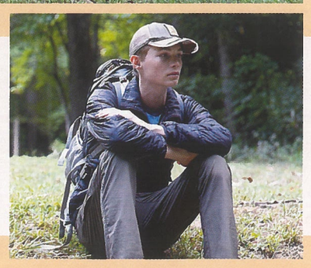

BOYS'S CLUB CAMP OUT

A great way to kick off the school year and get to know each other is Boys Club Camp-out!
The boys were working together hard to fight the cold and the rain. pushing them to the limit, and slowly turning them into MEN.

"Initiation is gone forever, but that doesn't stop us from throwing sleeping freshmen into the creek.." -Seth Gibbs, Gr 11

"It was cold and wet but it was fun!" -Braden Postell, Gr 9

HUMANITIES TRIP

What does the humanities trip mean to a junior? Making friends, building legos, harmonica jam sessions, a dinner date with some Mormons, feasting on pizza in a parking lot, and the youtube video, "99 Problems from 99 Harvard Students", is what would most likely come to mind.

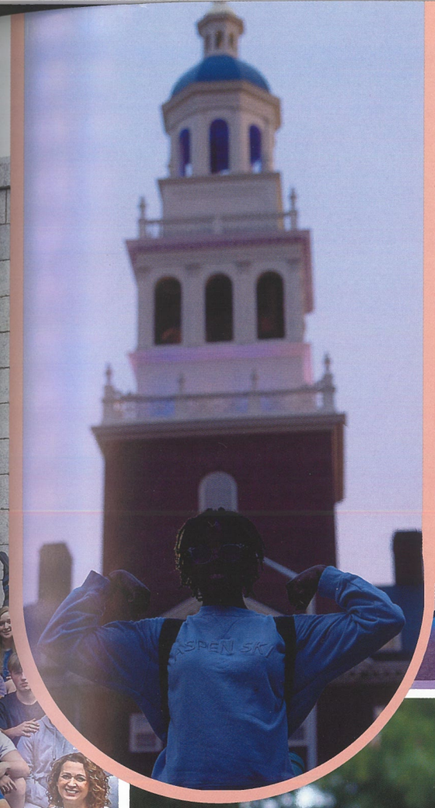

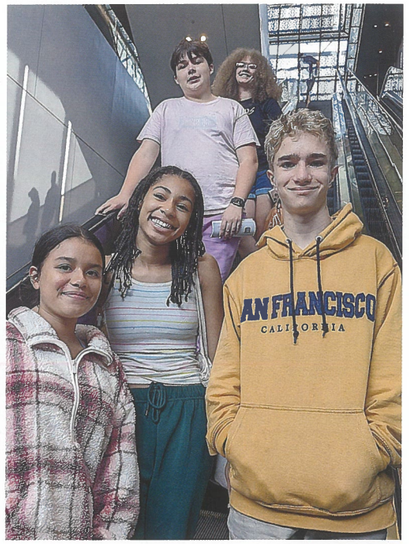

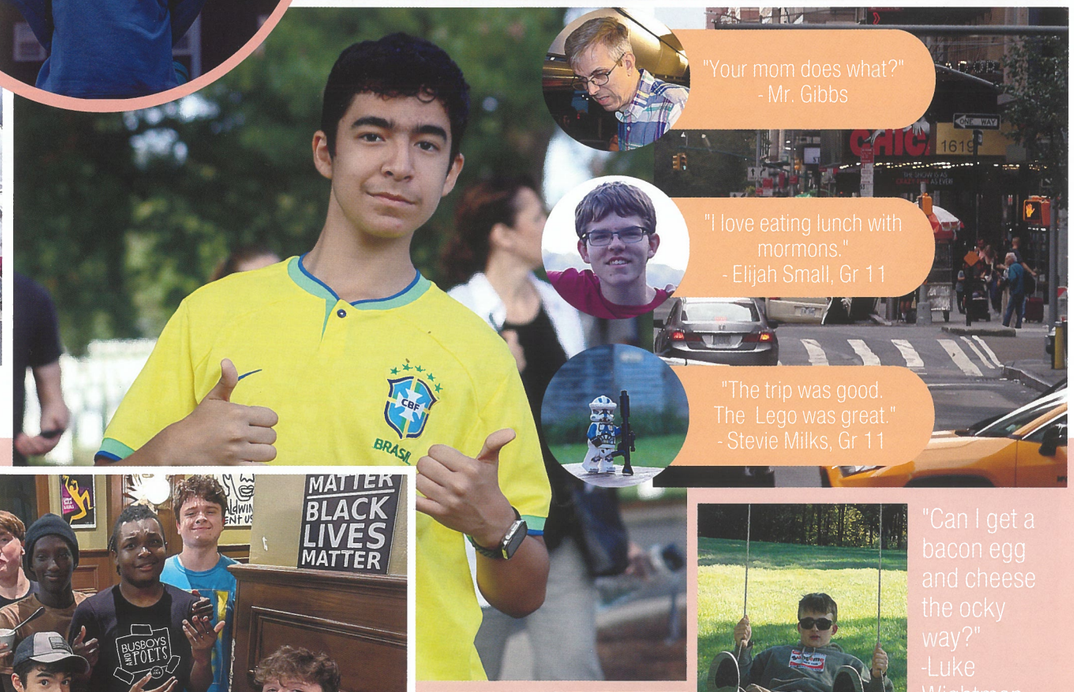

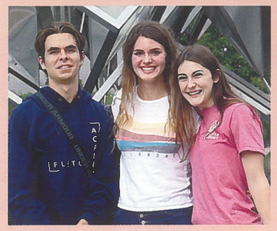

"Can I get a bacon egg and cheese the ocky way?"
-Luke Wightman, Gr 11

"My favorite part of Biology Trip was definitely playing baseball with Carvill. I throw heaters...and hit dingers."

-Zion Fuentes, Gr 10

Biology Trip was a mix of beautiful sunsets, forests full of mosquitoes, and sand everywhere imaginable. The sophomores tested Mr. Carvill's patience but everyone came out of the trip alive with many stories to share. With out-of-cafe meals and metallic showers to finish the day, the sophomores bonded like never before.

BIOLOGY TRIP

SUNRISE TO SUNSET

"Biology Trip was a wee bit difficult having to limp my way around but it's fine... We made it."

-Emily Ford, Gr 10

FALL FESTIVAL

The fall season is in action, so bring on the festivities! Students gather together to enjoy activities such as face painting, enjoying caramel apples, riding horses, and enjoying the company of some goats. Overall it's a pretty fun time.

GIRLS CLUB BANQUET

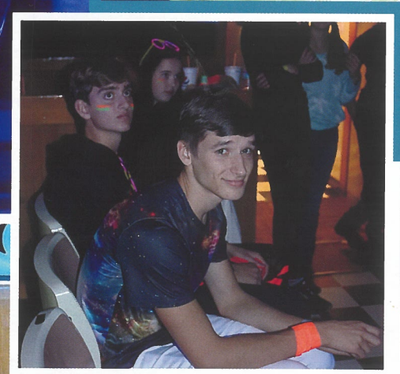

"Honestly the glasses may have looked cool but if you spoke to me that night I probably just smiled and laughed because I had no idea who was who."
-Abigail Sanders, Gr 9

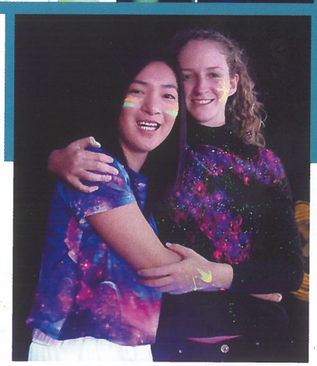

Upon arriving at the gazebo, the neon outfits were blinding as far as the eye could see.

The long ride to the venue was a great chance to bond with your date (or just friends), and the bowling was a fantastic way to show off all of our practiced and honed bowling skills. The cafe was the highlight of many people's night, mostly because of the much beloved Moe's queso that it served. Overall, Girl's Club Banquet was a great success full of glowing faces by the end of the evening.

WEEK OF PRAYER

At surface level view, Week of Prayer is just a week of morning and evening meetings in the chapel and church, but to most students, Week of Prayer is an opportunity to be closer to God as a community. The spiritual lessons along with the entertaining stories of Pastor Jackie James created a spiritual ambiance that encourages students and others in the community to deepen our relationship with Jesus.

"Pastor Jackie did an amazing job. It was entertaining and very enjoyable. I learned a lot and really liked all his jokes and stories."
- Isaac Pitman

"It was a vibe, 10/10 would do again"

CHRISTMAS PARTY

'TIS THE SEASON

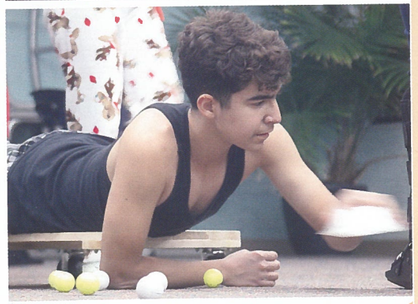

At the school Christmas party, things took a wild turn as SA decided to ditch the traditional festivities for a night of mattress surfing in the AD building stairwell. With a makeshift ramp and a borrowed mattress, the holiday spirit matched new heights -quite literally.

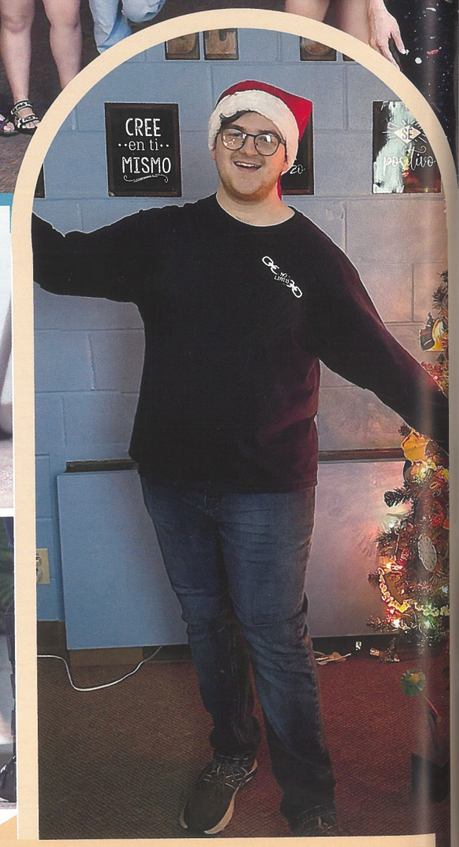

"MERRY CHRISTMAS!"
-James Holt Gr 12

Hot sauce tasting added a spicy twist to the evening, turning the Spanish room into a daring culinary adventure, and, to top it all off, competitive games had everyone laughing their way through the holiday cheer, proving once and for all that Christmas parties are best celebrated with a touch of chaos and a dash of hot sauce.

"It was a lot of fun hanging out with everyone and doing all the activities. Throwing people down the stairs was funny and the hippo game was chaos. John can't beat me in wrestling either."

-Micah Burgin, Gr 11

- Narden Jean-Jacques Gr 11

"Participating is overrated. Just get Dairy Queen and stand at the sidelines. It's just as fun as competing, trust me."
- Eliana Brenner and Ilona Johnson Gr 10

WINTER OLYMPICS

NEW YEAR, HOPEFULLY NEW STATS

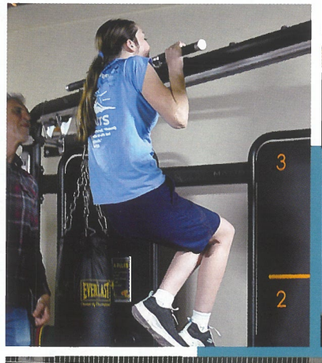

Whether you're a lifeguard, scorekeeper, participant, or a spectator from afar, Winter Olympics is one of the most competitive events at Fletcher Academy. Everything from pull-ups and basketball, to flailing your arms and legs in an inner tube, the Olympics brings out all the athletic talent from everyone in your class. Stakes are high as each class is set to compete. Did you dominate? Or will your class be one point too short?

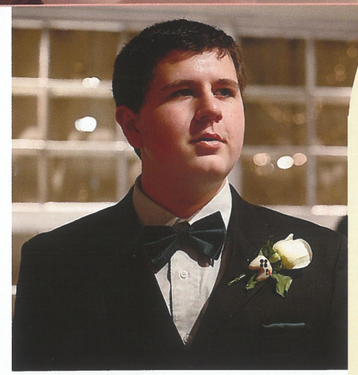

"Winter Olympics is all fun and games, unless you have a sibling in a different class. Depending on the outcome, it can make for some interesting car rides home."
- Keira Sutton Gr 10

SA BANQUET
BOHEMIAN DREAMS

A toast to the special night that SA has been preparing for for months! Get ready to be whisked away with your friends (and date) to a night of big dresses, fancy suits, embellishment exchanges, mood lighting, and complements- all complete with a pasta dinner! Entertainment was full of skits about skirt headdresses, improving the infamous banquet ask, and of course calling out Ilona's famous ask. James and Caleb played "Golden Hour", which quickly became a crowd favorite, and Eliana Brenner graced us with her melodic voice. We can't forget about the game shows and the shadow-boxing matches either...

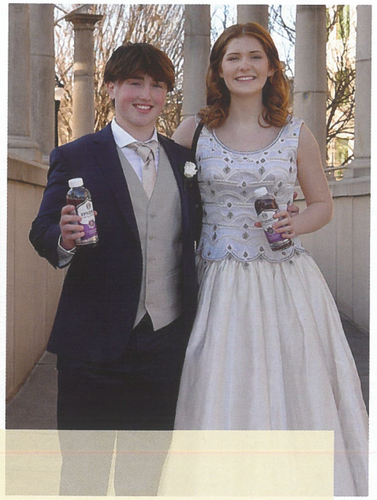

"Banquet was really fun, everyone looked so good and the cookies were BUSS"
-Elaina Geneve Gr 11

"He's such a gentleman! He buys me kombucha and puts bandaids on my toes."
-Tiffany Trace Gr 11

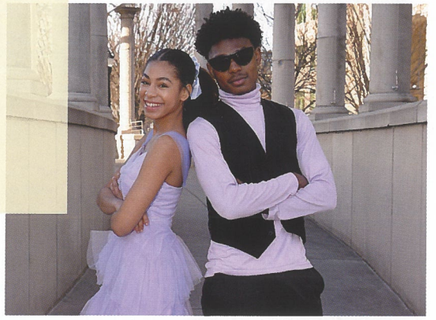

The Experience

"The banquet was bussin' but the cookies were more bussin'"

"The music, the dresses, the people- it was like a fairytale (minus it being extremely cold)."

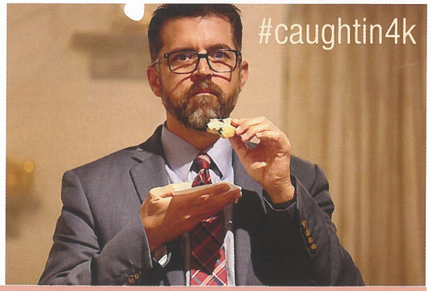

"All around straight flames."

"The ultimate chafing experience."

PRAYER CONFERENCE

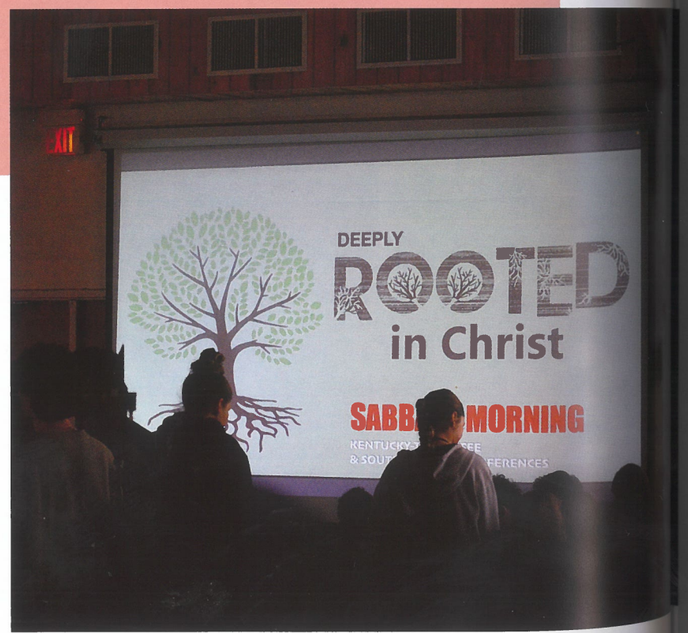

REGROUND YOURSELF IN CHRIST

Prayer conference is a life changing experience for many. With the whirlwind of of meeting new friends, eating camp food everyday, and having frequent and extremely emotional heart to hearts, Prayer Conference tests and shapes many aspects of your character. Many would agree that their perspective changes after this getaway, and the FLA boys never disappoint!

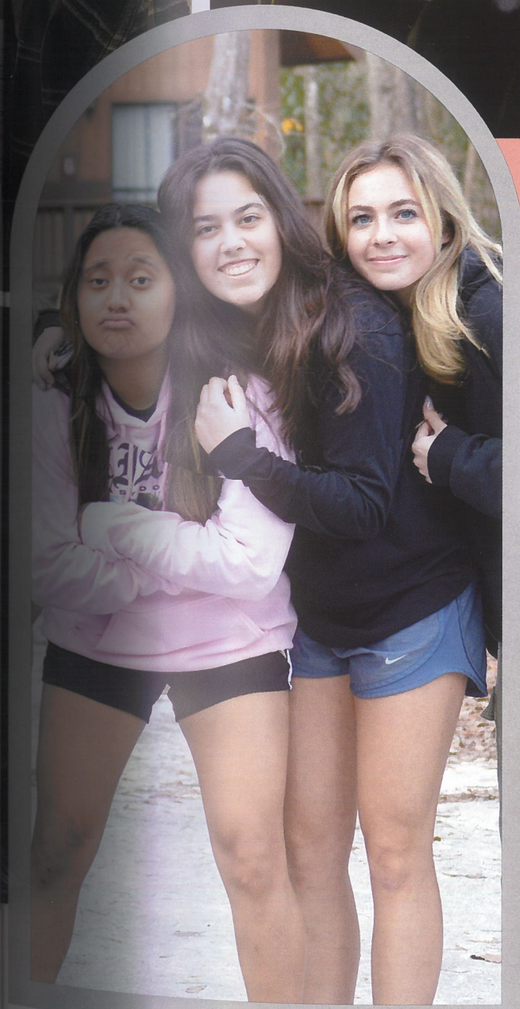

"The whole week I was deeply rooted... In the biscuits and gravy we had every morning!"
-Kinsley Ash, Gr. 12

The praise teams really got everyone into the spirit. The songs truly touched everybody's hearts in unique ways that only God can accomplish.

"The food was great, but Jesus was greater!"
-Alex Castro, Gr. 11

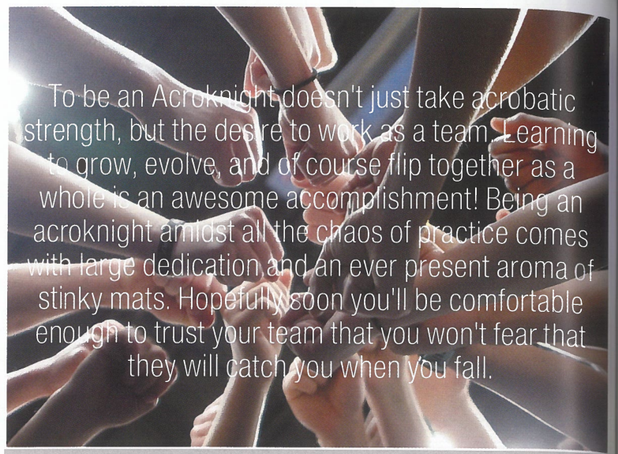

GROUPS

REACHING NEW HORIZONS TOGETHER

WHOSE BLOOD IS ON YOUR SHOES?

On the mats, tossing, throwing, catching, and inevitable dropping people eventually leads to lots of bruises and especially torn-up hands.
Some of the boys get bloody knuckles, which to some, sounds gruesome, but in acro, it's almost a brag at this point to say, "I've got someone's blood on my shoes."
Currently Ryleigh's shoes are stained with blood from Andrew, Megan's shoes are dotted with Colin's, Ilona has Zion's, and Aubrey Wilhelm and Nicole have the blood of the recent alumni, Aiden Wilhelm and Peyton Meadows.

To be an Acroknight doesn't just take acrobatic strength, but the desire to work as a team. Learning to grow, evolve, and of course flip together as a whole is an awesome accomplishment! Being an acroknight amidst all the chaos of practice comes with large dedication and an ever present aroma of stinky mats. Hopefully soon you'll be comfortable enough to trust your team that you won't fear that they will catch you when you fall.

CAPTAIN'S CORNER

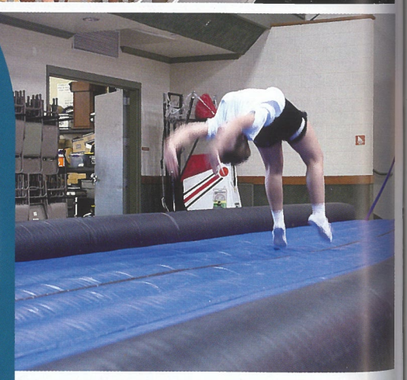

"To me, acro is the best part of each day. I loved this year's team and we had lots of fun! I'll definitely miss all memories from Acrofest and the rest of the time on the mats...Tigor!!!

– Cadence Mohns, Gr. 12

"Acro is a time for building up. Not only are you building up the moves you will perform, but you are building each other up as a team. You are relying on each other to do their part. When one stumbles, we all stumble. But when one succeeds, the whole team succeeds. Great job AcroKnights!"

- Andrew de Fluiter, Gr. 12

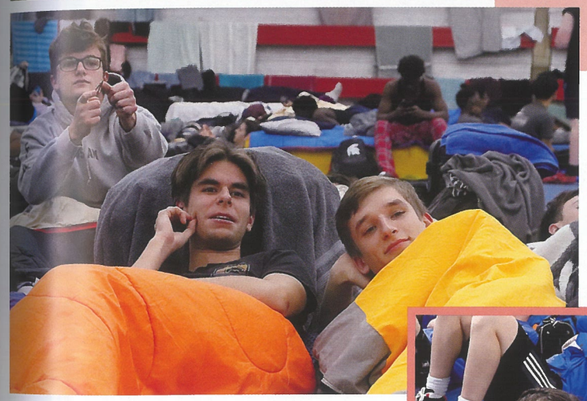

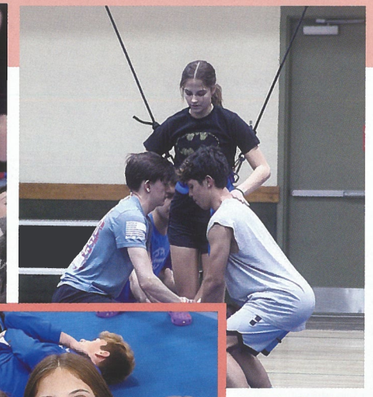

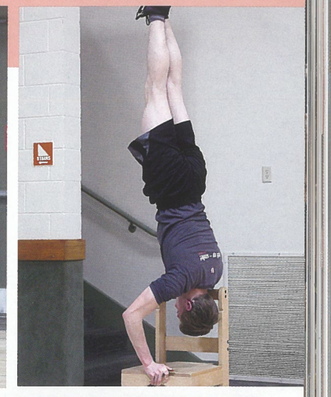

ACROKNIGHTS EVERYWHERE ALL AT ONCE

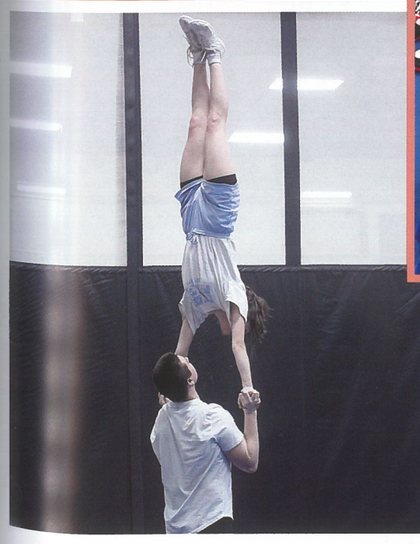

From the mats to Michigan to many different schools and back. Are you ready to test your strength and memory to be everywhere you need to be all at once? Make sure to remember when your cue is, and where you should be to make your routine the best you've ever performed.

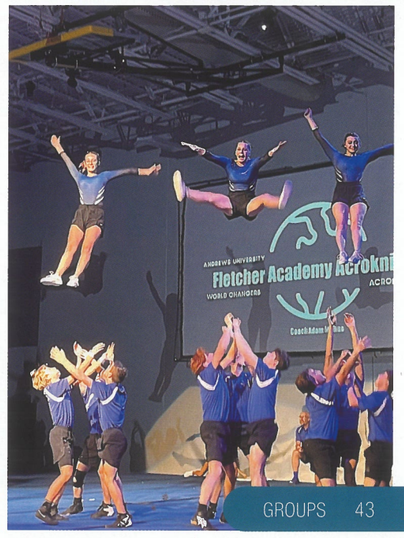

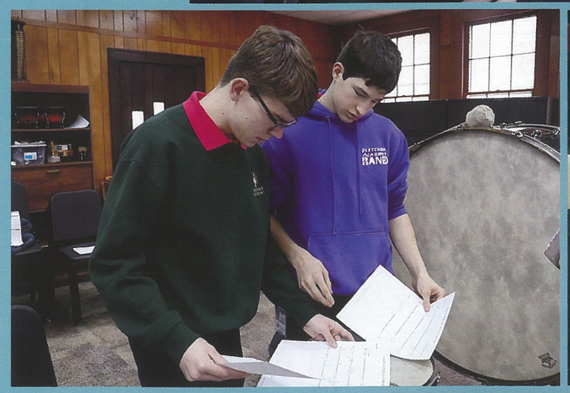

"The group for acro is really strong this year. I've enjoyed it so much"
- Lucy Parker Gr. 12

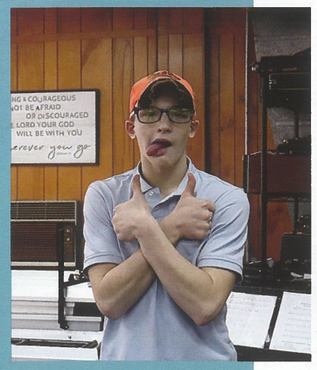

BAND

WHERE ONLY THE SILENCE IS LOUDER THAN THE PLAYING

Although our numbers have fluctuated through the years, this group is truly special. The unnerving enthusiasm we have before practices and performances is almost able to be grabbed. Even though our array of instruments does not seem to be a complete band... we are complete in spirit. Praising the Lord with our songs is what we do best

"I love Mr. McConnachie because he is so energetic and fun!"
- David Larrabee, Gr. 10

"I'm not really sure what happens... but sometimes we make a noise or two."
- Elijah Small, Gr. 11

EXALTATION

MY WRISTS ARE TIRED! MY ARMS ARE TIRED!

The best class of the day where getting into the music is encouraged, so if you're upset or excited, make sure to ring your bell loud enough for everyone to hear! But don't get too angry and slam your bells together on the table...

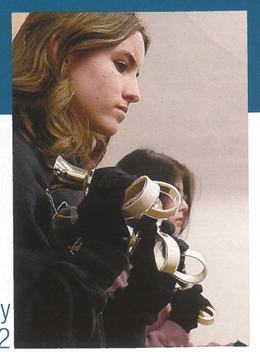

"In bells class we're always laughing about something whether it's Cameron's mallet flying through the air, Seth hiding in the closet, or the treble and bass players having to make faces at each other for a good performance."
- Tiffany Trace Gr 11

"Only people in bells will understand 1 2 3 ba dum dum!!!"
- Dailen Haney Gr 12

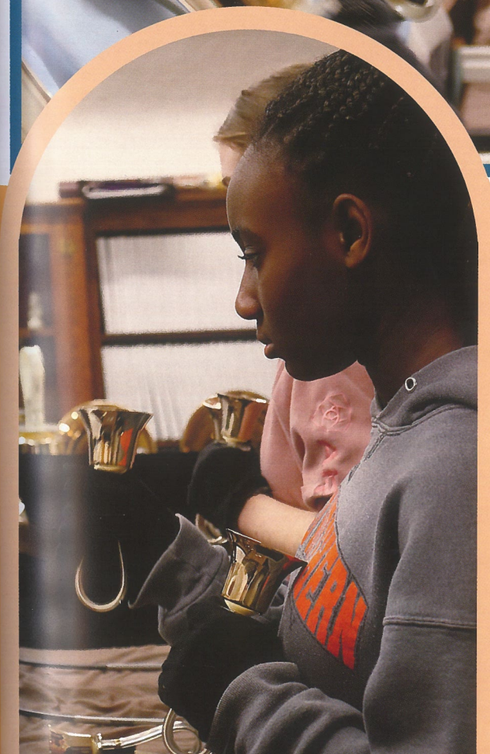

"In redemption, we literally 'Ring out the false, ring in the true'!" - Morgan Teague Gr 9

"Who is missing today? I just want a day with no one gone!" - Mrs. Baker, Bells & Redemption teacher

REDEMPTION

BABY BELLS AT IT'S FINEST

Redemption, the class that starts at 5:45 which is easily forgettable until you pickup your bells and start ringing! Many redemption players are good enough to be in exaltation, but there isn't enough spots, yet a few players in baby bells are still beginners.
Playing in redemption is something that most exaltation players will never forget whether it's learning how to read music, highlighting their notes, or how to stay in beat with others, they'll never forget their first time playing a bell.

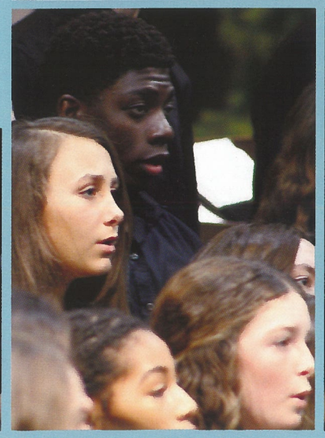

CHOIR

SINGING FOR HIM

Choir starts at 11:17 sharp! So be prompt and ready to sing! If you've never been in choir, Mrs. Pettit will be sure to help you catch on soon by singing sirens and "crazy warmups" with everyone. But if you act like these exercises are stupid, its a dead giveaway you're a newbie. The real ones know to get to business!

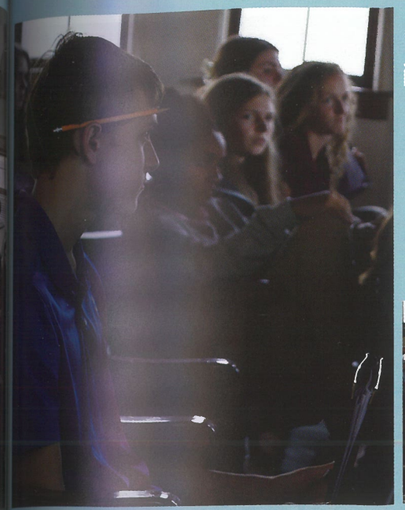

What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my mind also; I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will sing with my mind also.
1 Corinthians 14:5

"Within the walls of my choir room, I witness the incredible resilience of the human voice. It has the power to heal wounds, uplift spirits, and ignite a passion for music that reverberates through the hearts and minds of my students long after the final note is sung."
-Mrs. Pettit, Choir and 11th Hour Director

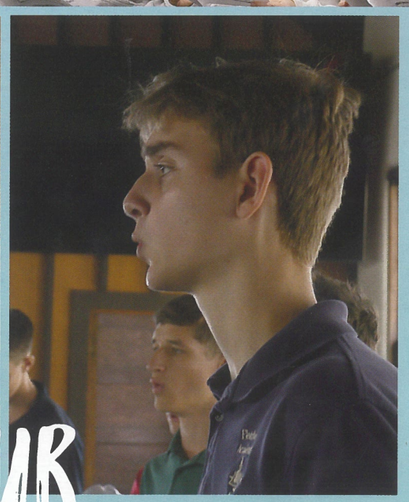

11TH HOUR

STRINGS

Like the strings on their instruments, they've been stringing along through high school creating a symphony of unforgettable memories. From untangling their bows to hitting the perfect note (eventually), this group has truly been in tune with the ups and downs of high school life.

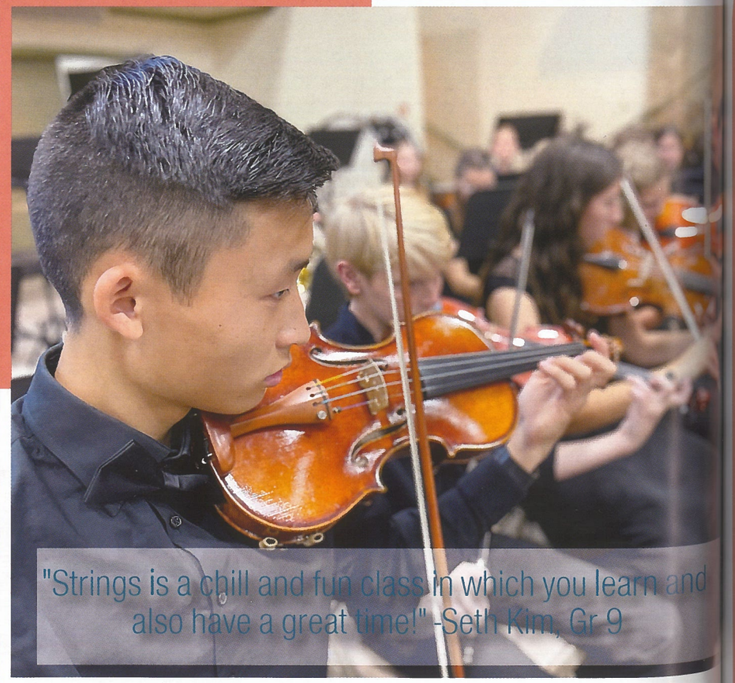

"I love being in strings! Being a small group, everyone gets a lot closer, which leads to a lot of fun and interesting moments; from impromptu jam sessions to Mr. McConnachie giving percussion lessons when the seniors are gone. There's always something going on!"

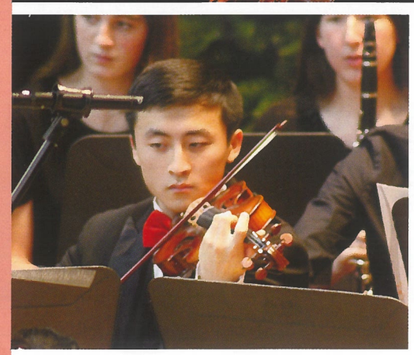

-Jolie Gallinger, Gr 11

"Strings is a chill and fun class in which you learn and also have a great time!" -Seth Kim, Gr 9

"I didn't know that practicing scales is equivalent to taking vitamins sigh Time to take vitamins."

-Caleb Kim, Gr 12

GIRLS DORM

Are there rats in the ceiling? Or is that just the people above your room? This is the most frequent question of them all. In the Girls Dorm, there are 2 types of rodents: your roommate, and the cheese-eating creatures roaming the walls. Nevertheless, the Girls Dorm is full of love for each other, shown in many different ways. You may not know it at first glance, but the Girls Dorm is one big family filled with beautiful bonds of young women.

BOYS DORM

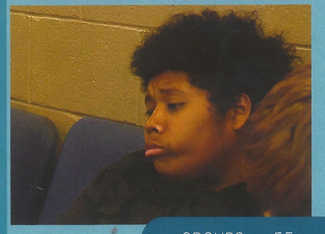

Greetings from the boys' dorm!
This is the place where friendships thrive and laughter (and sometimes screams) reverberate through the hallways.
Life in the boys' dorm is a vibrant mix of shared experiences- so be open to the unexpected and accept the eccentricities of your roomates'. Life in the dorm is a diverse mix of shared memories, spontaneous shenanigans, long-lasting relationships, and lets not forget about becoming obsessive pros at shadow boxing. Be prepared for the nature of THE BOYS.

GOD'S DORM

Here, in "God's Dorm," we strive to show the true and merciful character of God. Within its walls, we strive to be a representation of Christ, displaying His qualities such as love, patience, and compassion for one another. Kindness and empathy are the most valued qualities in the dorm because of the attitude of love and understanding that surrounds every part. Every inhabitant strives to maintain close friendships with each other and with God, creating an environment that reflects the true care of a loving God. This deliberate attempt to live as vessels for Him, we hold strong to His promise in Matthew 18:20 - "Where two or three are gathered in MY name , there I am in the midst of them."

FRESHMAN CLASS OF 2027

Freshmen in high school are like enthusiastic puppies entering a new, slightly overwhelming dog park. Armed with backpacks bigger than their dreams, they navigate the hallways like lost explorers in a jungle of lockers. Socially, they're like tadpoles trying to find their place in the high school pond, unsure whether to stick with the familiar or venture into the unknown territory of upperclassman conversations.

"Who needs talent when you have money?"
- William Vincent, Class of 2027

"The only reason some of us aren't succeeding in life is because we set our expectations low, and aim low, so when we set that bar, we think that we cannot do anything greater. But we are so much smarter and stronger than we imagine."
- Anthony Pettit

A Word From the President:

"Our class is like a freshly opened bag of chips – there's a lot of us, it's full of potential, a bit noisy, and occasionally someone spills something. So embrace the crunch and savor the flavor of our freshman class."

- Seth Kim, Class of 2027 President

The freshman class of 2027 is a unique bunch, composed of some strange, yet intriguing personalities, ready to create the endless memories that high school has to offer.

SOPHOMORES 2026

Sophomores in high school are like the middle children of the student body – past the wide-eyed innocence of freshmen and still light years away from the senioritis-stricken wisdom. They've upgraded from being lost puppies to somewhat seasoned navigators of the high school jungle, sporting backpacks that are still too big but with an air of faux confidence.

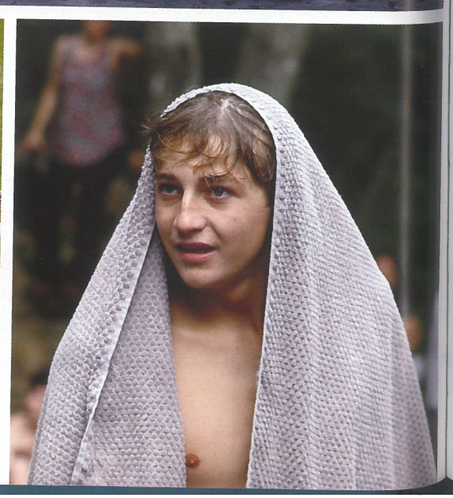

Our class is so awesome, besides the fact that everyone's kinda retarded except us.
- Addison Ash and Eliana Brenner

"Turns out you really can slip on bananas..."

-Adrian Rodman

A Word From the President:

Having never lost an event, I think it's fair to say that the sophomores are pretty cracked. Despite the many varieties of people that make up our class, we sophomores are bursting with so much character and personality that the rest of the school doesn't know what to do with us.
- Megan de Fluiter

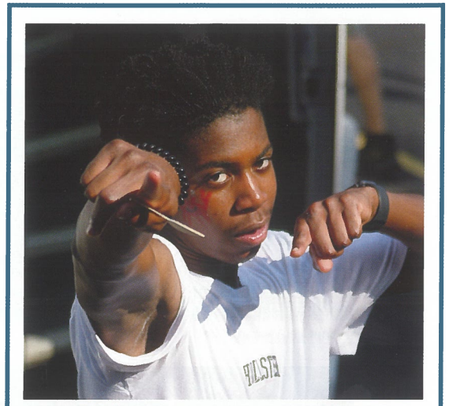

I knew from the start we were gonna win. I just acted scared for no reason... -Stephen Learned

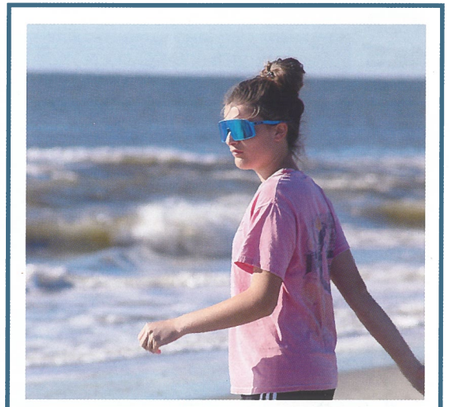

Socially, they've evolved from tadpoles to awkward adolescent penguins, waddling through the hallways trying to find their cool factor while secretly wondering if it's acceptable to still enjoy recess.

JUNIORS 2025

Juniors in high school are like overcooked spaghetti—tangled, a bit frazzled, and constantly in a state of boiling stress. The only thing al dente in their lives is the fleeting hope of the next homeleave coming sooner.. all while desperately trying to savor the moments that aren't overcooked with responsibilities.

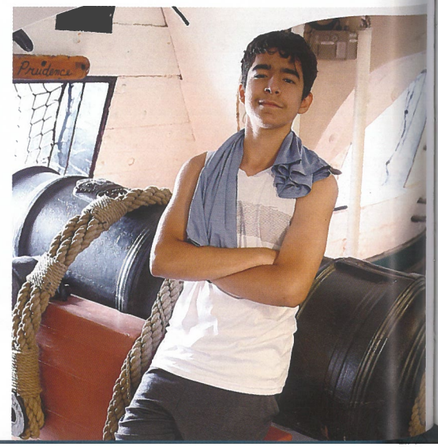

"If I had to describe the junior class in 5 words I would say... Strong, Skibbidy, Not Smart... Actually, no we're really smart."
- Andrew Coleman

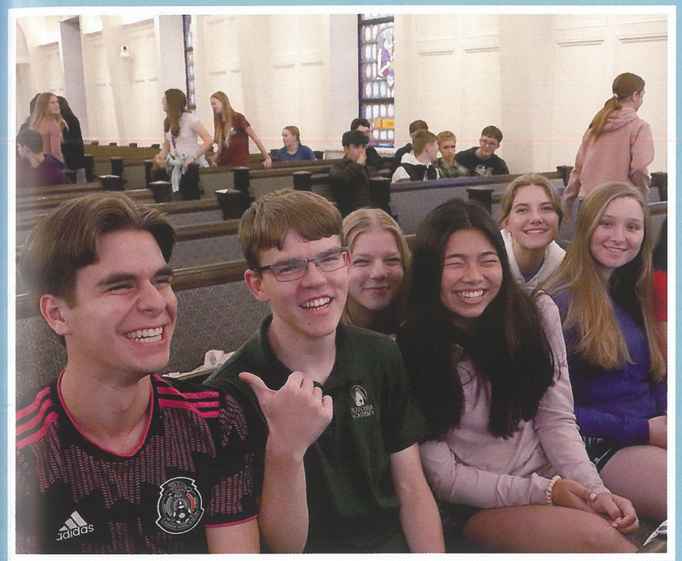

"LSD's and teenagers at Fletcher are practically the same thing. They're detrimental to your mental health, but the journey is worth it."
- Anonymous

A Word From the President:

They say there's a thin line between hate and love. So by some reasoning I love my class, but without a doubt I do care for the people in our class. From kind and caring to funny and carefree, this class has it all. The people are what make me excited for one more extraordinary year. No one knows what could happen with this crazy bunch.
- Seth Gibbs

"Our class is like a ukulele. We're very fun, happy, and hard to put down ... we can also be pretty loud."
- Isaac Pitman

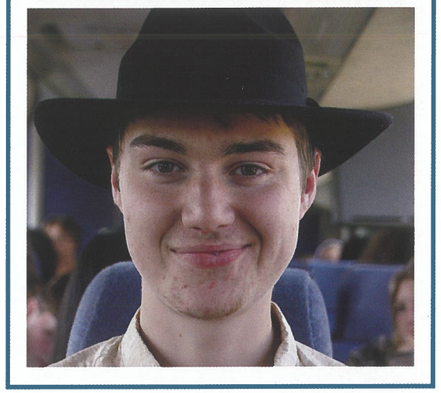

In the bustling hallways of high school, the juniors, with unique personalities, bring a kaleidoscope of individuality to the social landscape.

"My unmatched perspicacity, coupled with sheer indefatigability, makes me a feared opponent in any realm of human endeavor."

I thank my dearest friends and acquaintances for uplifting me during hard times, putting me in my place when I acted out, and filling my life with joy. I choose not to mention names so I don't accidentally leave out a few people that I appreciate, because yes, I acknowledge A LOT of people. To all those I value and love, you know who you are, to those I disagreed with, to a few teachers who made my life harder than it already was, I am grateful for the impact you have placed on my life. I never expected to attend Fletcher and it is truly a blessing. Would I relive my high school years all over again? Nah, I'm ok. But, All jokes aside, I greatly appreciate every soul that I have encountered in this school and I pray that we may meet again in a greater place called heaven. God bless.

CLASS OF 2024

SENIOR SCRAPBOOK

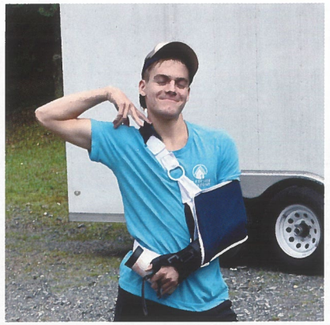

The seniors in high school are like the royalty of the adolescent kingdom. These seasoned veterans have a finely tuned skill set that includes the art of looking busy while actually doing nothing, a talent they've honed during countless classes. Their backpacks are like time capsules, containing remnants of freshman dreams and forgotten homework assignments from three years ago. They've also developed an advanced form of selective hearing, tuning out teachers' voices unless the words "graduation" or "free pizza" are mentioned. As they countdown the days until graduation, their enthusiasm for anything remotely related to homework has dwindled to a level that rivals the interest of a student seeing enchilada casserole on the lunch menu. One thing that leaves underclassmen in awe, is their strut down the hallway as if the weight of impending adulthood is merely a stylish accessory.

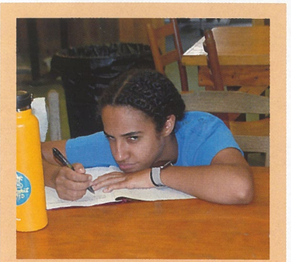

"It was a lot of fun even though I was broken"
-Ivan Wilkie, Gr 12

"Senior survival was a conglomeration of claustrophobic supper, shadowboxing tournaments, and huddling under the hot air emitting from a laundry vent. It was very cozy."
Michelle Perez, Gr 12

"Bonding is amazing!"
-Jay Newman, Gr 12

SENIOR SURVIVAL

LAST YEAR, NEW US

What comes to mind when you think about Senior Survival? Most people think that you get to survive in the woods with a nice tent, cooking your pre-made gormet cafe food, and maybe even roasting a few marshmallows, but sadly this is not the case... Senior Survival is survival of the fittest.

Shadowboxing started at Senior Survival and nobody can beat the seniors with those shadowboxing moves.

Don't try to beat us (there's only 5 people who have before).

"The next day they asked me what was wrong...And I couldn't say anything"
-Anthony Zill, Gr 12

"The bugs: Disgusting,
The food: Mediocre
The sleep: Terrible,
But all around a great time. :)"
-Cameron Hodges, Gr 12

"I wish I could trade you guys for WiFi"
-Matthew Taylor, Gr 12

"Some people are ready for college, but not me. Sometimes I amaze myself but other times I put laundry in the oven."-Cameron Hodges, Gr 12

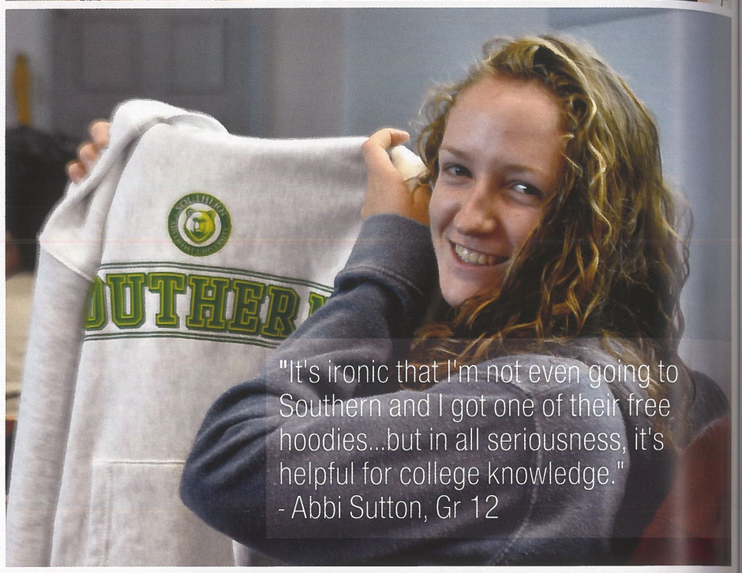

"View Southern made me realize that Southern is the only place I want to go ." -Brianna Nicholson, Gr 12

"It's ironic that I'm not even going to Southern and I got one of their free hoodies...but in all seriousness, it's helpful for college knowledge."
- Abbi Sutton, Gr 12

VIEW SOUTHERN

View Southern – a multiple day trip where the dorm students are let out of their cells and the village students complain about their lack of phones. The Seniors tour their departments of interest, see old friends, and explore downtown Chattanooga. Overall, it's a fantastic opportunity to answer the question almost every local near Fletcher Academy asks you: Are you going to Southern?

SENIOR DEDICATION

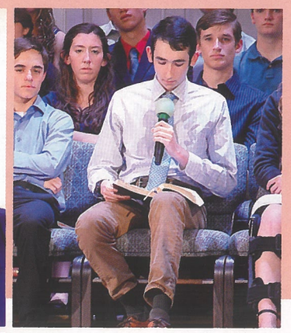

A TIME FOR MEMORIES

Senior dedication.. the time when parents get to make a tribute to their upcoming graduates. The parents talk about how much their kids have grown up. They mention the good and the bad moments, the funny and the serious times, the times that they laughed about and the times that they cried about. Most people say that their favorite part about senior dedication is getting to see the baby pictures of their classmates, which let's be honest, is the only reason we show up.

Having Mrs. Turner as the speaker was definitely an interesting thing and extremely unforgettable...

WHEN IN THE DOMINICAN...

SUNSHINE AND LAUGHS EVERYWHERE

After snagging gold at the Winter Olympics, the seniors threw caution to the wind and kicked off their adventure at the stroke of midnight. Running on fumes, they set off to the Dominican Republic to lend a hand in church construction and VBS. As the days rolled on, the sun decided to play a little game of tag, leaving some seniors a little crispy and others bronzed in a flash. From wild sand dunes, to the thrilling Scape Park, the seniors had a blast! But the real treasure? Crafting brand new memories with their class and soaking in every last moment before tossing those graduation caps in the air.

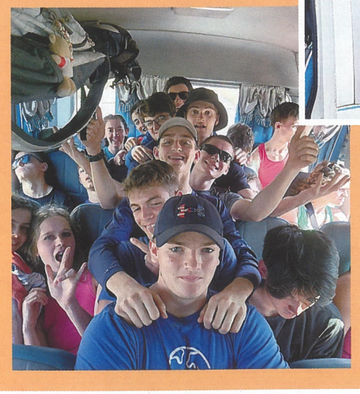

The "Guagua" bus was the king of the road in the Dominican Republic, despite being small. The roads were so bumpy that some folks had to hop off since the bus was so heavy, including a few ladies, but hey! It was all part of the wild ride, creating epic group adventures!

THE EPIC ASK

Ivan came up with the perfect plan to ask Dailen to banquet, IN THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC! Take notes, boys

Two cool seniors, Benji Wickham, and Cony Villalobos, had their birthdays on the Class Trip! Huge shoutout to their sponsors for making it epic, complete with Dominican cake. Here's to officially stepping into adulthood!

-Mr. Henski, Chaplain

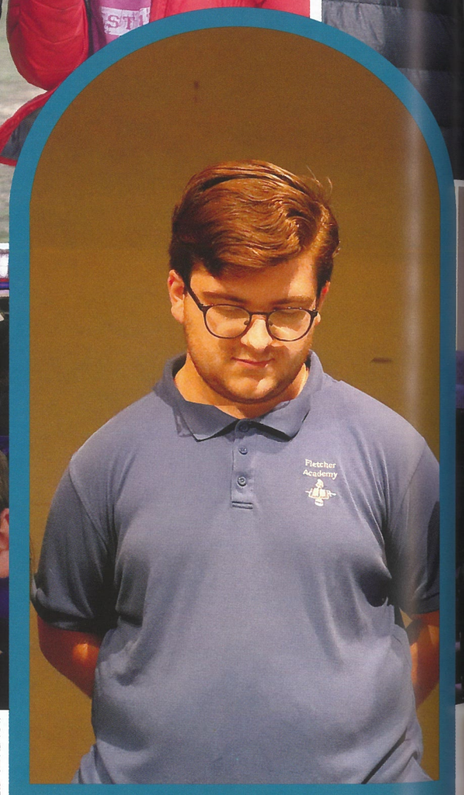

CAMPUS MINISTRIES

LIVING FOR GOD

At the heart of our campus, there is a commitment to creating an environment where students can deepen their relationship with God. Whether it's outreach, chapel, vespers, or even the mission trips, Campus Ministries' main focus is bringing people closer to Christ and helping through their journey of faith.

"I've really enjoyed the spiritual aspect of Fletcher since coming here. It's helped me come closer to God with all the different spiritual activities, Godly influence from friends and staff, and a big spiritual environment."
-Isaac Pitman, Gr. 11

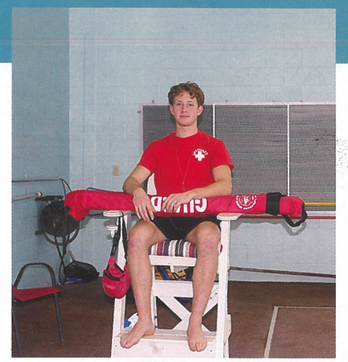

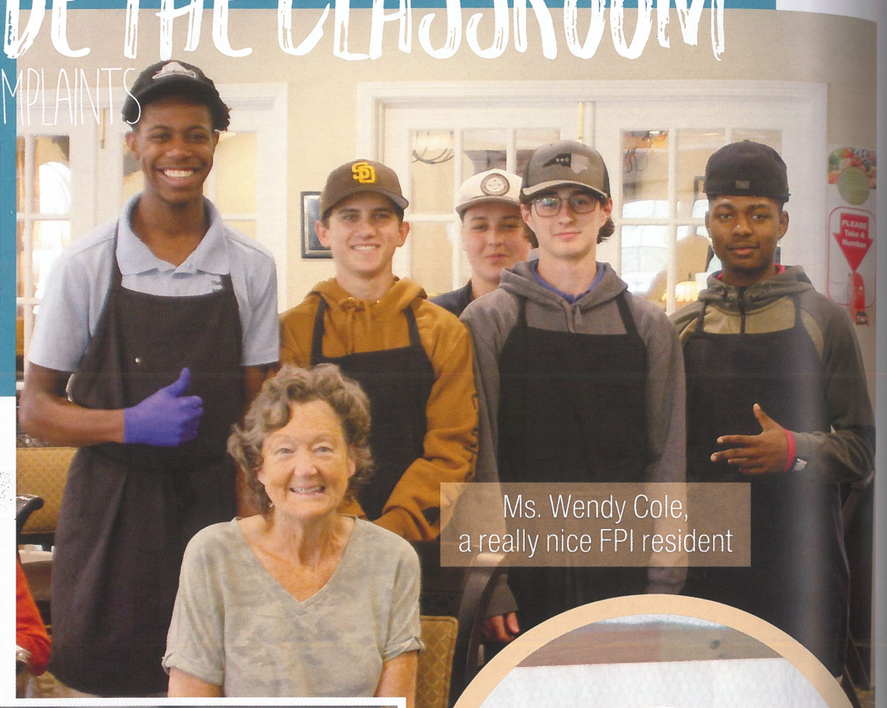

"At first, I was really scared to go up front and sing, but Ms. Pettit reminded me that it wasn't for my glory, but for God's. After that I felt a lot better and the song turned out great!"
-Hannah Jaeger, Gr. 11

OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

NEW JOBS, SAME COMPLAINTS

Ms. Wendy Cole,
a really nice FPI resident

WORK OR PLAY?

There are so many job opportunities such as food service at FPI or the school cafe, grounds and farm work, grading papers, running an office desk, working in the learning center, and of course janitorial positions. There's something for everybody at Fletcher. If you hate one job, somebody else may love it, and if you love your job, someone else will hate it, and the cycle continues. If you end up disliking your job as a freshman, good news! You get a new one every 9 weeks! As an upper classmen: better luck next year...you only get one.

"Work sucks bro."
-Janice Hong, Gr 10

"I love working for Mr. Mohns. Each day is something new and I also get to watch the freshman run just like we had to last year."
-Mitchell Nudd, Gr 10

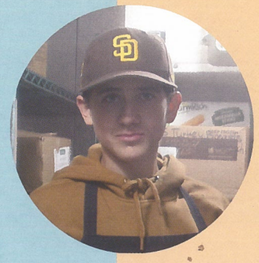

I love my job at the learning center, especially when i get to tutor my friends in he afternoon.
Ava Jarrett, Gr 10

"Working at the farm is a crazy adventure everyday. Sometimes you just have to stop and smell the flowers."
-Bailey Root, Gr 10

"I work FPI kitchen. What more is there to say."
-Paul Witt, Gr 10

If you walk into the Learning Center on a normal school day, it's almost guaranteed that you'll find a Fletcher student trying to catch a well deserved nap.

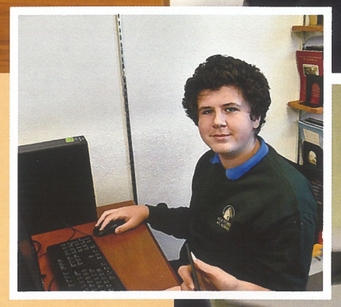

WHAT'S THE HARDEST CLASS AT FLETCHER?

The Seniors were asked what the hardest class at Fletcher is 27 seniors responded:

- Calculus - 8
- English 101- 5
- Chemistry- 4
- A & P- 4

Other answers included biology, government, anything math related, and lunch.

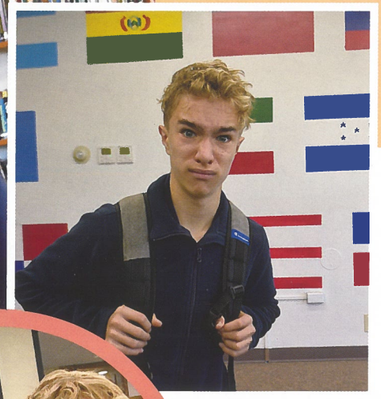

ACADEMICS

At Fletcher Academy most of the students take academics very seriously, unless they are chatting, playing on the computer, or distracting themselves in one form or another, but Academics is mainly taken seriously.

Daniel Hawkins & Stephen Learned, Gr 10

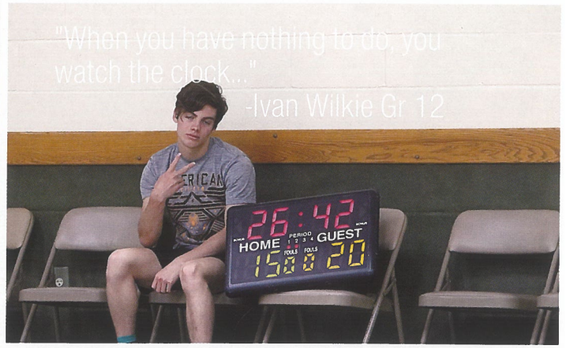

INTRAMURALS
ONE TEAM, ONE DREAM

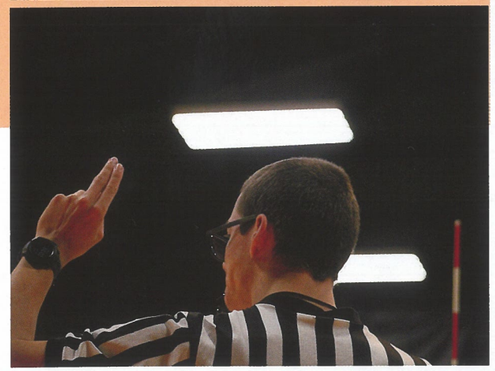

YAY for intramural! The time to show off your athletic skills. Even if you think that you suck at sports, it's a great opportunity to get better at your athletic skill and bond with your friends and classmates.
Trying not to get injured while playing is really hard because when people play against others, they inevitably get competitive and go off, which somehow, ends up up feeling like you're in the jungle playing with some gorillas and lions.

"When you have nothing to do, you watch the clock..."
-Ivan Wilkie Gr 12

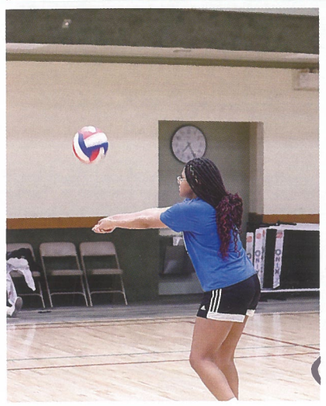

SPECTATORS.....

If you aren't playing, you'll always find spectators that enjoy watching their friends play, which brings people together to cheer and support! Some could say that watching is more entertaining than playing...

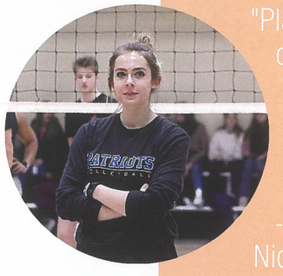

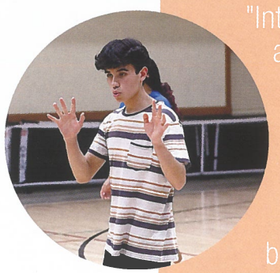

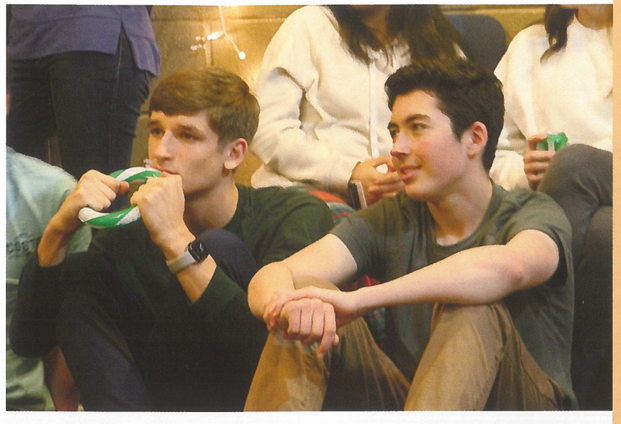

"By no means we are not professional athletes, but we still treat every game like it's the super bowl.."
Mitchell Nudd Gr 10

"Playing with a connected team makes the experience so enjoyable."
- Brianna Nicholson Gr 12

"Intramurals was a very fun experience, the way the games were set up gave a competitive but still friendly atmosphere."
David Rosado Gr 11

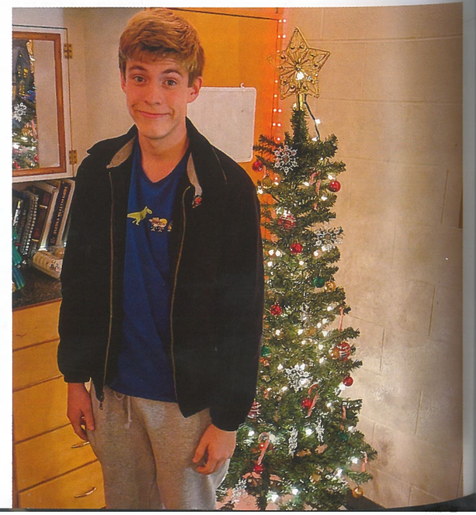

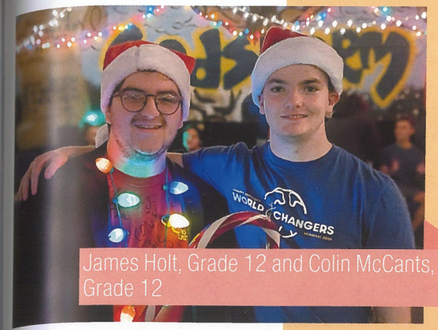

"The games at the end were actually pretty lit, especially when Benji kept falling out of his chair. Personally, I only fell once, so it was more fun for me." Jehonathan Newman

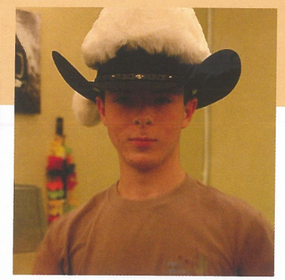

James Holt, Grade 12 and Colin McCants, Grade 12

BOYS OPEN HOUSE

THE LATEST INTERIOR DESIGNERS

"I honestly feel violated with all these girls coming into the dorm and judging our room." Camren Seicks, Grade 11

"I really enjoyed being able to see the boys dorm. It makes me appreciate the girls dorm and our rooms so much more." Nevaeh Aldrich, Grade 9

"I feel like a lot of guys need to be forced to buy Febreeze during Walmart trip, and also be forced to do their laundry. Maybe that will help with the horrific smells." Tesla Dobson, Grade 10

A NORMAL DAY AT FLETCHER ACADEMY

6 AM

Pumping iron or getting a few extra hours of sleep. Both are necessities at this school. Does the grind ever stop at Fletcher Academy?

7:40 AM

Classes start at 7:40 and many students are roaming the halls at 7:35. If you're not tardy or already in class, you're probably a senior at work!

9 AM

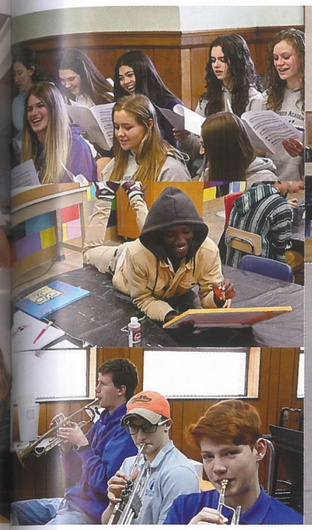

Most students are still in class with most in math class. At 9 AM, the famous yearbook class starts! Be sure to finish your homework (or spreads) on time

11 AM

Trumpet sounds and voice sirens waft through the chapel while the smell of paint wafts through the Ad Building from art class.

12 PM

The Ad building is empty and everyone is socializing and having a deserved break! Unless you play pickleball- try not to be late for class...

12:50 PM

Everybody's back for a few more classes. Whether it's Bible, Econ, or Chemistry, try your best to stay awake instead of falling into a food coma.

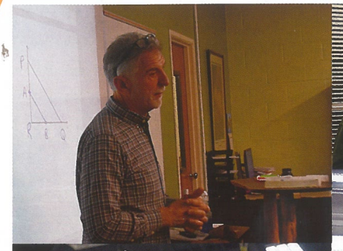

Many activities go on at Fletcher through each day. From schoolwork, socializing, and having to walk from building to building, things are well very well planned. Schedules are tweaked to perfection so everyone is where they should be, getting the things they need to get done!

Does a regular day look like this for you at Fletcher?

3 PM

If not still in math class at 3 o'clock, most people head over to the LPC to fit a few minutes of basketbal into their day.

4:40 PM

The time of the day for more extracurriculars! Acro, bells, and strings are in session! Get ready to test your mind, muscles, and musical skills.

5:30 PM

Ready to race to the cafeteria before acro gets out? After a very engaging school day, there's still one last meal at the Fletcher cafe. Yet, some people are still wearing uniforms...

6:30 PM

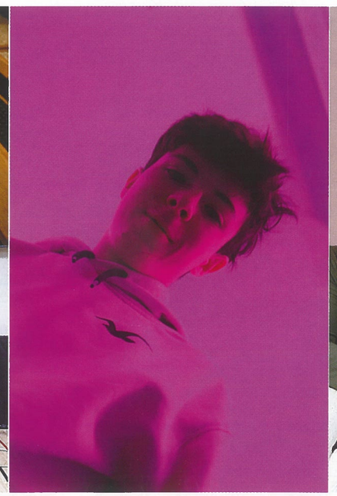

Choose your fate: studying for a test and finishing homework, or socializing and playing at rec. But afterwards both of these activities require winding down for another busy day.

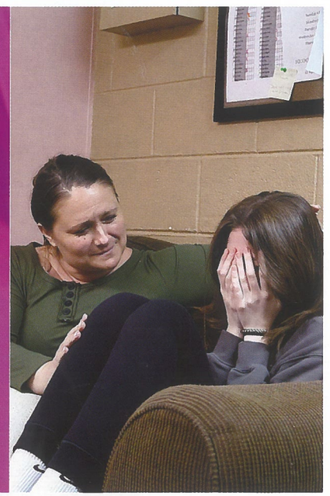

10:30 PM

Some Fletcher students are already asleep at this hour, while others are finishing a paper they forgot about, or even worse, partying with the LED lights.

2 AM

Deans and RAs never get the full sleep they need and deserve. They're usually having a meeting about issues in the dorm or comforting somebody heartbroken.

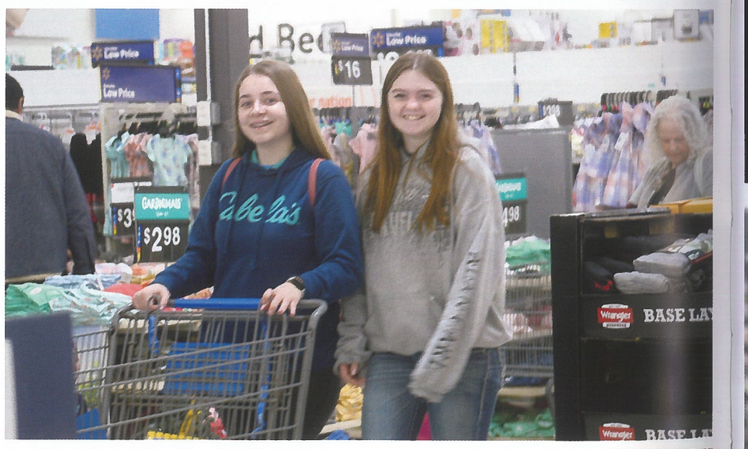

WALMART TRIP

For village kids, Walmart Trip might not sound all that fun or interesting. But for dorm kids, Walmart Trip is a way to finally get off campus and restock their stashes of food. Or maybe it's just a good time to download songs and get a little unblocked technology usage in after so long without it.

"The best way to get around Walmart is in the cart. I make my friends treat me like the queen I am."
- Brielle Roy, Gr. 9

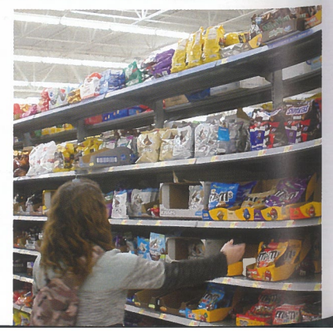

What do you go on Walmart Trip to do more often?

Buy necessities

Get food from places around Walmart

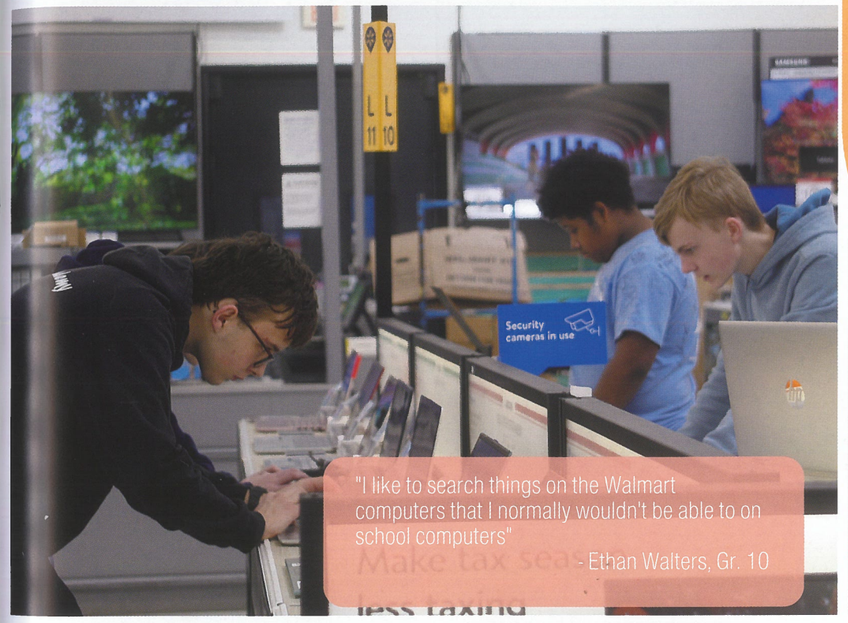

Hang out

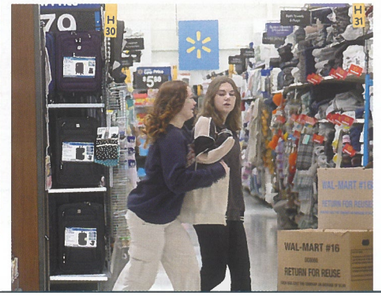

"I like to search things on the Walmart computers that I normally wouldn't be able to on school computers"
- Ethan Walters, Gr. 10

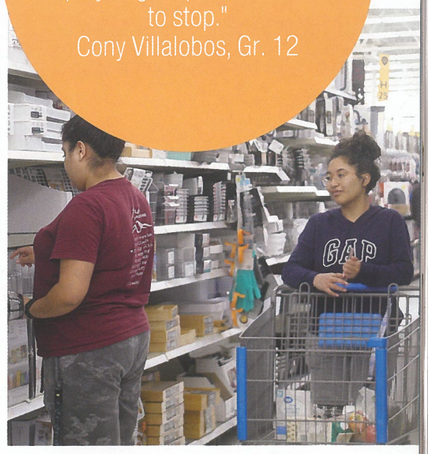

"There was nothing to be smiling about because they didn't have vanilla wafers."
- Adrian Rodman, Gr. 10

What is your favorite Walmart Trip memory?

"My first Walmart Trip I went crazy and bought like $100 worth of food which I then ate in the span of about 3 days."
Ilona Johnson, Gr. 10

"I played hide and seek with a bunch of people and eventually, everybody got lost and nobody could find each other so we gave up. It was time to leave anyways."
Megan deFluiter, Gr. 10

"I rode mini bikes with Dailen around the isles until a Walmart employee got upset and told us to stop."
Cony Villalobos, Gr. 12

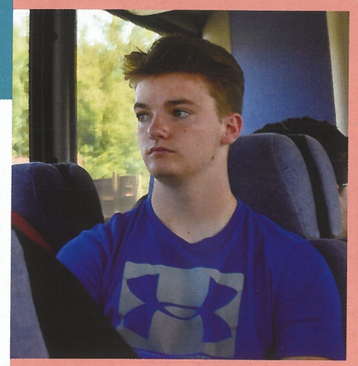

ROAD TRIPS

HOW DO YOU TRAVEL IN STYLE?

Everyone enjoys the destination but some of the best memories are made on the journey. From bus rides– to packing more people than necessary into a van– Here's to all the inside jokes made, card games played, and money wasted on gas station food!

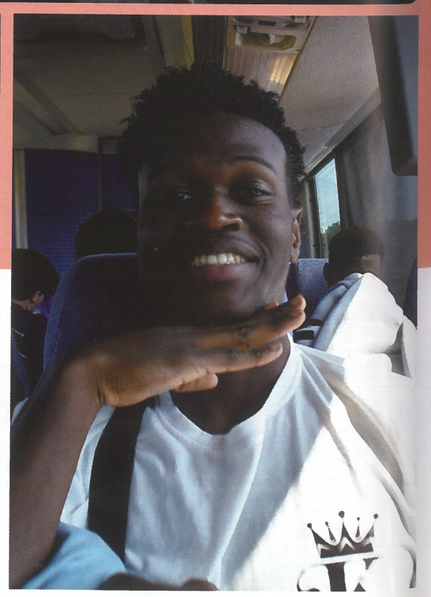

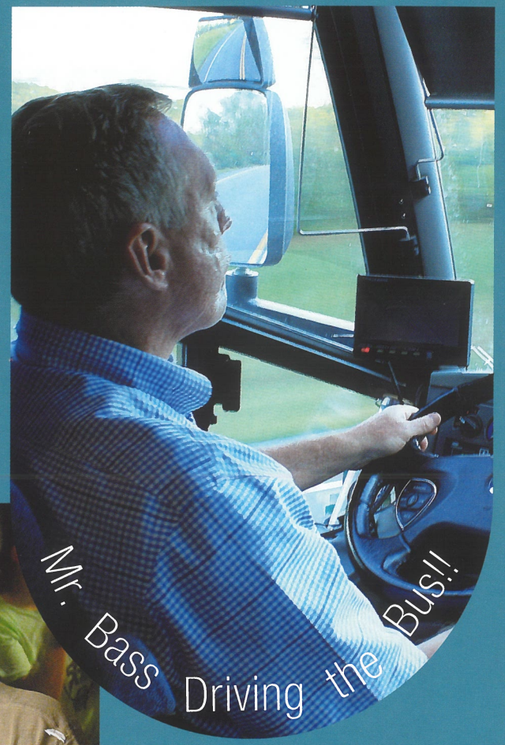

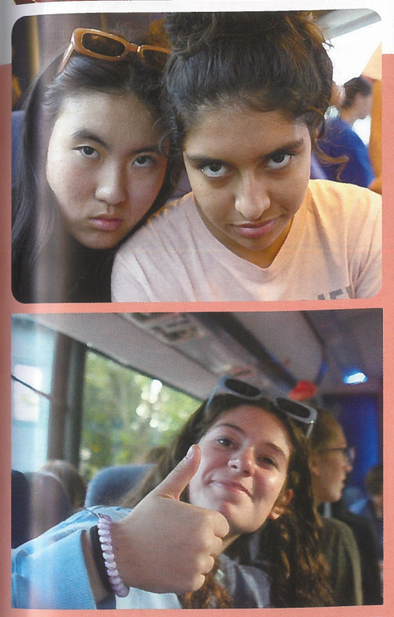

"The uncomfortable claustrophobia in the bus brings me closer to my fellow students in a literal and metaphorical way..."
- Lauren Wright, Gr 10

FAVORITE ROAD TRIP SNACK??

After taking a poll of many roaming students, these are the most popular answers given...

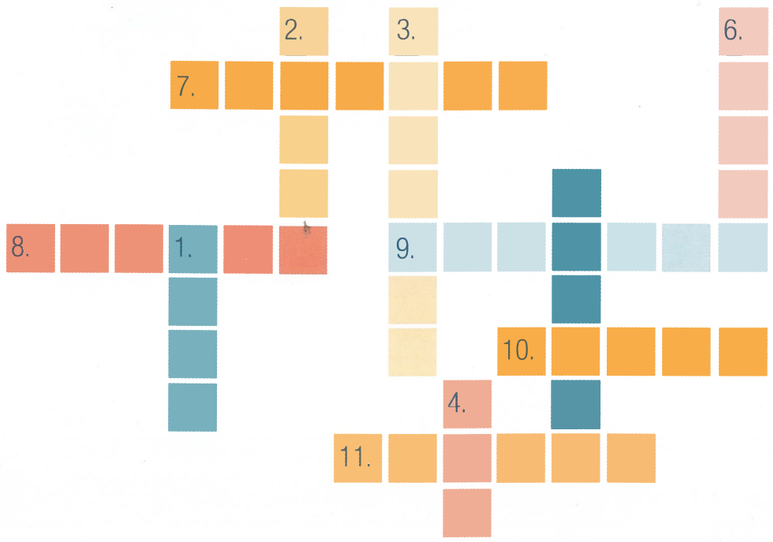

- Nerds Gummy Clusters
